Free Enterprise To Be Explained To Seniors Here

Representatives of 24 city and county firms will explain to high school seniors of the city and county high schools how the free enterprise system works and the American way of life Wednesday.

Some 220 students, from Washington C. H. and vicinity will meet in the High School auditorium at 9 A. M. to begin the day-long activities known as Business-Industry Education Day.

Glen Allen, general manager of the Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce, will show a film entitled "It's Everybody's Business" as part of the orientation period. The film was produced by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the du Pont Co. Purpose: to help educate people who are entering the industrial field so they will realize their employers are not the natural enemies of the worker.

Supt. of City Schools W. A. Smith will speak as will John Trace, the high school principal.

* * *

AT 10 A. M. the firm representatives will take small groups of seniors to their respective businesses and industries where they will be given information about nearly every phase of their operations.

The general purpose of the day's program — which is held in many cities throughout the country each spring — is to enable seniors to see opportunities for employment; to combat some of the misinformation prevailing about the American business system and to let students see what skills and knowledge they should need in taking their places in industry and business.

From 11:30 to 1 the host firms will entertain their young guests for lunch at various eating places in the city, and then go back for another session on the organization and functions of the business.

The students will be returned to the high school about 3 P. M.

Approximately 80 of the 220 seniors are from county schools and 140 from Washington C. H. High School are to take part in the BIE Day program.

In the days ahead they will have opportunities to write and speak about their experiences and what they learned on BIE Day.

* * *

THEY WILL take home several pamphlets including one in picture form entitled "The Story Behind Your Liberty!" Other pamphlets are "Who Profits from Profits?" "Dollars in Shirtsleeves," "How Profits Help You Live Better" and "May the Best Man Win."

Names of the participating firms and the number of seniors who will go to them were released Tuesday by Mrs. Tom Bush, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. They are Brown-Brockmeyer 5, Cudahy Packing Co. 8, Bishop-Wilson Printing Co. 5, Coca-Cola Bottling Co. 5, Blue Rock Inc., 15, Risch's Drug Store 3, Stitt & Son Greenhouses 5, Frozen Food Lockers 5, J. C. Penney Store 5, Ohio Bell Telephone Co. 5, First National Bank 8.

Washington Savings Bank 6, Fayette County Memorial Hospital 10, Farm Bureau Co-op 24, Brandenburg Motor Sales 10, Carroll Halliday Inc. 6, Med-O-Pure Dairy 10, National Cash Register 20, Armco 30, Cliff Hughes-Ohio Wesleyan Farms 12, Coffman Stair Co. 6, Radio Station WCHO 5, Washington Mortuary Supply 3, and Slagle & Kirk 5.

Bids Are Asked For Reservoir

40-Acre Tract To Be Covered By Water

The Ohio Water Service Co. on May 4 will open bids for construction of the new reservoir on the former Willis land immediately north of Millwood and on the west side of Paint Creek.

The big reservoir will cover some 40 acres and hold upward of 100,000,000 gallons of water, an amount sufficient to tide the city over any ordinary drought.

Bids will be for the reservoir only and a little later a call for bids for building the new pumping, softening and filtration plant east of Paint Creek and north of the standpipe will be issued.

It is expected that scooping out the 40 acres of ground to a depth of nine feet to form the reservoir proper, will require less than two months, for the firm receiving the contract will, in all probability, be equipped with giant earth movers which will eat away the ground at a surprisingly rapid rate.

Top soil about a foot thick will not be utilized in forming the embankments which will be built around the reservoir with the underlying clay and which will be of sufficient thickness to hold the water in the reservoir without danger of giving way.

The site of the reservoir has been tested to make certain that it is not underlaid with gravel which would permit the water to seep out.

No concrete will be used in building the walls about the reservoir, it is indicated.

Bricker Plan Scheduled For Senate Hearing

White House Delay, May Be Seen As 'Cringing' Before GOP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said today a White House decision to delay administration testimony on the Bricker treaty amendment "will be interpreted as cringing before a vocal segment of Republicans."

Kefauver said a decision to postpone "for the time being" testimony from Secretary of State Dulles on the proposed constitutional amendment "was made at the White House, not in the State Department."

Kefauver, chairman of a Judiciary subcommittee which plans to open hearings tomorrow on the proposal by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said he was informed of the postponement by the White House.

At the time, he added, the decision was not known by the State Department's congressional liaison man, Asst. Secretary Thurston B. Morton.

President Eisenhower was asked at a March 23 news conference whether he had changed his views on the Bricker amendment. His reply:

* * *

HE OPPOSED it last year on the ground that it would hinder his conduct of foreign relations. A revised version was narrowly defeated in the Senate. In brief, the proposal would allow a treaty to become effective as internal law only through legislation which would be valid in the absence of a treaty.

Dulles had said he would testify tomorrow before Kefauver's subcommittee, but the senator said word then came from the White House of a change in plans.

Kefauver said he plans to go ahead, but he added:

"This refusal to face up to an obvious effort to weaken the hands of the executive is going to be interpreted as cringing before a vocal segment of the Republican party. It is obvious to me that this stall or delay has its root in the refusal of the administration to risk antagonizing a vocal wing of the GOP."

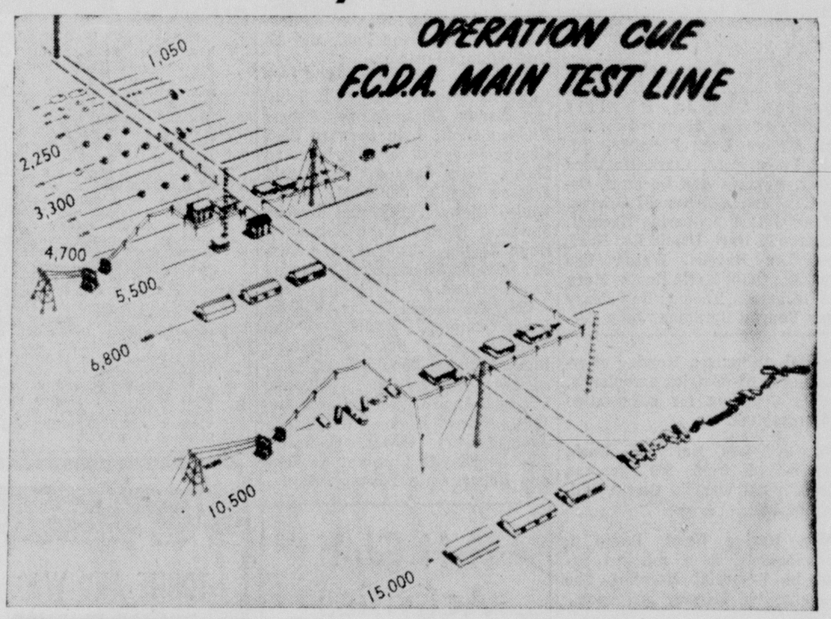

Kefauver said he will start hearings with Bricker as a witness and "someone I will try to get who may be able to represent the administration."

Woodchucks Sought To Dig Bunny Holes

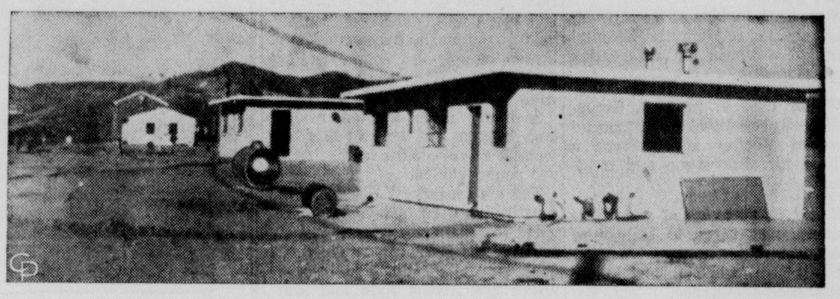

BEAVER ISLAND, Mich. (AP)—The Beaver Island Game Club has asked the State Conservation Department to ship a supply of woodchucks to this Lake Michigan island to dig holes for rabbits. That's right. It seems there are few cottontail rabbits here because there aren't many holes in which they can live. (Rabbits don't dig their own; they borrow holes from other animals.)

'Survival City' Gets Another Reprieve

A-Bomb Testers Call Off Blast Due To Weather

HERE IS A CLOSEUP of houses in the Yucca Flat, Nev., "Doom Town." They are 4,700 feet from the ground zero tower of the atomic bomb. House in foreground is of reinforced masonry. Beyond, precast concrete slab. Both are without basements. (International Soundphoto)

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev. (AP)—This model community in the desert, given a 24-hour reprieve, is ready and waiting for the big nuclear blast now reset for tomorrow morning, weather permitting.

While sand swept around the jaunty little homes on Doomsday Drive, veteran test officials scanned their weather charts for signs of assurance that no further postponements would be necessary. They were not overoptimistic, however.

The test organization said after postponing the shot yesterday that it could not take the risk of radiation fallout posed by high crosswinds and cloudiness.

Yesterday's postponement was the fourth time in this series that a 500-foot tower shot has had to be delayed under the cautious policy of the Atomic Energy Commission.

This greatest of all public tests involves more than 5,200 persons—military, civilian defense and government-sponsored, plus news, radio and TV men.

* * *

THE DELAY chafed eager volunteers of the Federal Civil Defense Administration who plan to take up trench positions on the outskirts (3,500 yards) of this test town on Yucca Flat. Seven women and 14 men are slated to be in the six-foot trench.

Weary Army tankers from Camp Irwin, Calif., and armored task force soldiers from Fort Hood, Tex., more than 450 in all, were sweating it out at Camp Desert Rock, along with some 2,300 other GIs who will be in trenches.

Forty NATO observers from 12 nations toured the test site yesterday. They will view the big detonation from News Nob, nine miles away, along with about 400 reporters and 600 civil defense observers.

Some civil defense personnel indicated further postponement would force them to leave without seeing the test.

Television and radio broadcasts of the shot will be moved ahead from Tuesday to the day of the blast.

This is the 13th scheduled test in the 1955 atomic series, which an AEC aide, Dr. E. B. Doll of Stanford Research Institute, said has provided many definite answers to blast characteristics at various altitudes.

Dulles Seeks Ban Against Any Propaganda

Direct Conferences Without Nationalists OKd By Sen. George

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles said today "we intend to try to find out" whether the Chinese Communists are sincere in wanting a peaceful Formosa settlement or are "merely playing a propaganda game."

Dulles declared the United States could hold direct talks with Communist China as Peiping has urged provided Nationalist China's interests are not directly at stake.

He said such talks might be held on a cease-fire though he would prefer United Nations sponsorship.

The United States also intends to find out "whether the Soviet Union is sincere" in its proposals for concluding an Austrian treaty, he said.

He declared that developments at the recent Asian-African conference at Bandung, and Russia's declared interest in winding up the Austrian controversy, may be "of decisive importance" for world peace.

Earlier, Sen. George (D-Ga) said the absence of Nationalist China from the conference table should not prevent U. S. peace talks with Red China.

George, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, thus went a step further than the State Department has been willing to go, in renewing his proposal for a conference to seek a way to ease tensions in the Formosa area.

The department's official position thus far has been that American representatives would not be willing to talk with Chou unless the Nationalist were represented too.

In a new development, the United States was understood yesterday to have decided against any direct talks with Red China unless the Chinese Communists come through with more conciliatory gestures than they have made so far.

* * *

GEORGE, a chief Democratic spokesman on foreign policy, said he would be willing to waive the Nationalist representation condition, at least in exploratory discussions. In Taipei, Nationalist spokesmen have said they would not parley with the Reds.

"All rights of both parties could be reserved at any conference that could be arranged," George said. "With those rights reserved, I think it would be advantageous to have preliminary talks with the Communists to learn if it is possible to make some approach to a peaceful settlement.

"Only through a conference can we arrive at anything and I think one should be held."

Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), a Foreign Relations committeeman, took exception to George.

"I think the presence of the Nationalists at the conference table would be indispensable," he said. "We certainly wouldn't sit down at any conference to dispose of British territory unless Great Britain were there.

"We have recognized Chiang's sovereignty over Formosa by treaty. Congress has voted to use our armed forces to defend Formosa. To talk with Chou when they are absent would mean that we are abandoning them."

WHS Coach-Teacher Jim Lipinski Resigns

School Maintenance Discussed

Plans for the summer rehabilitation program for the city's schools today were beginning to take on definite form following a decision by the School Board at its Monday afternoon meeting to "do as much as time and money will permit."

That decision came, however, after the needs had been gone over one by one and the entire program outlined in considerable detail.

Major phases of the rehabilitation plans included repairing and refinishing the floors, repairing and refinishing the desks and chairs, washing the walls and ceilings, a complete inspection of locks and doors and making repairs where needed and giving all the buildings a thorough cleaning. The plan was broken down into the needs for each building.

No overall estimates of the cost were made, but the board had a pretty good idea of what it will cost. Materials for the biggest part of the program would cost $2,690. However, since the work will be done by the regular maintenance staff, plus one or two extra workers at least part of the time, figuring the labor cost is complicated.

Along this line, the board rejected two bids for re-treading the stairs at the Rose Avenue School and discussed at length plans for repairing the chimney and caping stones at Sunnyside School. Definite action of these two problems was planned for the next regular meeting.

The project of pointing up the brick walls (placing mortar between the bricks) on much of the high school building is now under way, the board was told.

The resignation of James Lipinski, junior social science teacher and assistant football coach and baseball coach, was accepted by the board. Lipinski, who had five classroom periods out of six every day in addition to his coaching duties, said he had decided to accept an offer to go to the Cuyahoga Falls High School. He had been tendered a contract for another year at WHS.

He is the second member of the coaching staff to go to Cyyahoga Falls. Bob Shaw, athletic director and head football and basketball coach, resigned about a month ago to accept a similar position with the northern Ohio school.

Selection of successors to these two coaches, both of whom had a background of college and professional sports, was discussed only casually by the board.

Payment of routine bills amounting to $5,510 was authorized by the board. Most of them were for the normal services, such as utilities. However, $428 was for 16 new typing desks that completed the modernization of this department, which now has 32 new desks along with other equipment.

Before the board adjourned after a 2½-hour session, it agreed to hold a special meeting May 2 to discuss a building program to meet the needs of the future. There just had not been time enough to go in-

Much Is Accomplished At Asia-Africa Confab

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP)—While their delegation chiefs grabbed the headlines with verbal acrobatics, delegates concerned with economic problems quietly accomplished much of the work for which the Asian-African conference was intended.

As one delegate said, none of the 29 nations at last week's Bandung meeting could afford to build a battleship or acquire atom bombs.

Communist China was expected to make something out of Uncle Sam's big brother role. But the Reds did not raise their voices once. Nobody said anything about the aid the Soviet Union sends to Peiping either.

Once past this controversial issue, the economic committee speedily:

1. Agreed to exchange technical assistance, where one conference country could help another.

2. Recommended the establishment of a special U. N. fund for economic development.

3. Recognized the need to "stabilize commodity trade."

4. Recommended stabilizing international prices.

5. Decided small nations should process more of their own raw materials.

6. Suggested that shipping lines review their freight rates more often and adopt a more "reasonable attitude."

7. Encouraged the establishment of international and regional banks.

8. Suggested a frank exchange of information on the oil industry.

9. Urged speedy establishment of an international atomic energy agency to foster "development of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes."

10. Agreed to the appointment of liaison officers "for the exchange of information and ideas on matters of mutual interest."

11. Recommended furthering their mutual economic interests without forming a regional bloc.

Some 2½ hours after the blast the fourth body was taken out of the wrecked dynamometer room.

The Navy said the blast was caused by compressed air and fluid used in testing torpedo propulsion mechanisms.

About 20 persons were at work in the building, a cement affair about 150 feet long.

According to Wellings there may be one or two more victims in the debris.

The blast was heard plainly on Jamestown Island nine miles away.

The Navy said no identification would be made immediately.

The blast shattered one end of the building and blew off its cement roof. Twelve to 15 windows were blown out and wooden doors on the front blown off.

A dynamometer is a device for measuring the output strength of an engine. In a test, torpedo propulsion engines would be hooked up to the dynamometer and run at high speeds.

Sister-Slayer's Trial Underway

The youth was indicted for second degree murder Jan. 17.

Three judges are hearing the case after the defense waived a trial by jury. No motive for the "pillow fight" killing has been disclosed.

Counsel for Spears entered pleas of innocent and innocent by reason of insanity. Lima State Hospital Supt. R. E. Bushong said the boy was sane and responsible.

Dies At Age 53

WILMINGTON (AP) — Dr. Phillip E. Henderson, 53, associate professor of business and economics at Wilmington College, died today following a stroke.

He was president of Western College for Women at Oxford, Ohio from 1945 to 1951, when he joined the Wilmington College faculty. From 1936 to 1941, he was regional director of the Farm Security Administration.

Freighters Collide

ANTWERP, Belgium (AP) — The Greek freighter Belgion sank in the River Schelde early today after colliding with the Norwegian freighter Tai Shan. Five Greek crewmen were believed drowned.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

You can find pretty nearly anything in a newspaper office if you time your visit right. I'm thinking of setting up a museum of oddities that come in here.

The other day, I found a Mason jar filled with four snakes on my desk. It turned out that they were being chaperoned by two small boys just back from a snake-hunting expedition.

The snakes were as small for snakes as the boys were for boys. Maybe smaller. I didn't measure.

Anyway, the kids had been down to Rock Bridge on a bike hike and all-day camping trip. In the afternoon, they started to toss rocks into the creek and found the tiny snakes under the rocks.

"We found one two-and-a-half footer," volunteered one of the kids. After I checked hurriedly under my desk, they told me they'd killed the big snake. "We just brought in the little ones to you," they said reassuringly.

One of the snakes was a grass snake; the other three were garter snakes. The youngsters didn't know what the big snake was.

"We didn't wait around to find out," one of them grinned.

One of the four boys, Neil Strong, has been taking care of the snakes since Saturday, when the kids caught them. Roger Swartz, Maynard Andrews and Don Wightman were the other intrepid snake-hunters.

Don and a fifth boy, Eddie Bowen, brought in the snakes. I asked Eddie how he happened to be a co-owner of the snakes and he explained it was because he had been willing to come into my office with Don.

I'm not sure, but I suspect those other three kids were afraid of me when a two-and-a-half-foot snake didn't give them a turn. Looks like I'm going to have to grow a forked tongue to avoid scaring off my public.

More Blood Donors Are Needed For Bloodmobile Visit Friday

Fayette County's blood program faces a new threat today.

With less than two days to go, just 63 prospective blood donors had signed up for the upcoming visit of the Bloodmobile to the First Presbyterian Church Friday.

The quota is 150 pints, explained Mrs. Fred Cahall of the Red Cross chapter here, but allowance has to be made for those who may not pass their medical examinations.

The Lioness Club, which is sponsoring the drive this time, has combed the city. According to Mrs. Robert Wise, a member of the Lioness Club, members have contacted every place of business in the city and have solicited friends and acquaintances by the score.

Their private goal is 180 prospective donors, to allow for donors who may be rejected for medical reasons. So at Tuesday noon, they were just over a third of the way to their goal.

The Bloodmobile's visit is slated for Friday and Mrs. Cahall explained that the list of donors must be drawn up by the day before the Bloodmobile arrives.

The Lionesses are urging anyone who can give blood to telephone a member of Lioness Club. The recruiting campaign is headed by the president, Mrs. Charles Griffiths, but any member will accept calls—"happily," according to Mrs. Wise.

The only persons who can be sure they will not be allowed to donate are those under 18 years old or over 65. Young people between 18 and 21 must secure their parents' permission.

"Some persons are not allowed to give blood because of their medical histories, but the only way to be sure that your are in this group

Man Worried by What Dixie Grandpa Did

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ninety years ago today Grandpop Huldric became a man without a country. It never bothered him much, but it sure has worried me.

I've been thinking about the old gentleman a lot lately, but today I got to thinking real hard because in Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and Florida this is Confederate Memorial Day—and I come from Alabama.

This used to be a real sad time down home because it is the anniversary of the day Gen. Joseph E. Johnston surrendered the last Confederate army in the field—17 days after "Marse Robert" E. Lee gave up at Appomattox on April 9, 1865.

Mostly this is a time of mourning for me too, but today I've been laughing. Down by the Capitol there is a big statue of Gen. U. S. Grant, surrounded on both flanks with horses and cannon and men waving swords. This morning I noticed that some of the swords are bent.

I can just hear Grandad Huldric chuckling and saying, "That's the way they looked, son, after they fought me and yo' grand uncles Egboll and Relbue."

Anyhow, this is the day Grandpop lost his citizenship. The Yankees took it away and said he couldn't have it back until he signed up loyal.

Well, sir, Grandpop was about as unreconstructed as the Yankee army after Stonewall Jackson finished with them at First Manassas. By the time he got to be a citizen again, the Yankees had just up and decided to let bygones be bygones.

Grandpop was a member of the Lamar Rifles, 11th Mississippi, and I hear tell that as a member of the army of northern Virginia he did his durndest to upturn this government at places like Antietam and Gettysburg and in the Seven Days Battle.

They tell me that he and Gen. Jubal Early and 15,000 other fine and gallant gentlemen marched up to Washington in '64. They

Nurses' Breakfast Is Next Saturday

Saturday morning, the smell of frying ham and eggs and steaming coffee will fill the American Legion Hall. And members of the Fayette County Nurses Association hope there will be at least 1,000 noses there to sniff the aroma.

Saturday's the day of the nurses' breakfast, held each year for the benefit of Memorial Hospital and to help some deserving girl earn her Registered Nurse degree.

Starting at 6 A. M. and lasting until 10 o'clock, the breakfast will consist of ham, eggs, coffee (all you an drink, the nurses promise) sausage, hotcakes, fruit juice, rolls, butter and jams and jellies. The cost of this big meal is just 75 cents.

Last year, 950 persons turned out for the breakfast. This year, the nurses' Asociation hopes to top 1,000, according to Mrs. Donald Swaim, co-chairman of the committee in charge. Mrs. Marvin Roszmann is the other commtee head.

The proceeds of the breakfast will be used for some item of major equipment needed by the hospital, depending on the amount raised and is most needed at the time.

• • •

ANOTHER use to which the money will be put is helping some Fayette County girl through her three years of nurses' training. Each year, the Nurses' Association chooses a girl who has the capability to be a nurse but lacks the financial resources. The girl is allowed to choose the hospital at which she'll train and the Association offers her assistance.

This year, the Association has another group of girls from which it might choose the recipient of the scholarship. That's the Future Nurses of America, a new organization at Washington C. H. High School.

Members of those two groups will serve the breakfast Friday morning.

Members of the Future Nurses are Edna Peters, Janice Kelley, Joy Lucas, Carolyn Leeth, Barbara Gilmore, Evelyn Grieves, Mary Fox, Carol Penwell, Thelma McFarren, Beverly Nelson, Mary Ann Carr, Charlene Engle and Marilyn Melvin;

Funeral Is Held For Mrs. Johnson

Funeral service were held at 2 P. M. Monday for Mrs. Lizzie Johnson at the Gerstner Funeral Home.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengel, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, was in charge of the service. He read Scripture from the Book of John, the Twenty Third Psalm, offered prayer, paid a personal tribute to the deceased, and closed his remarks by reading the hymn, "Abide With Me."

The beautiful flowers were cared for by the pallbearers Arthur Maddux, Laris Hard, William Eakins, John Srofe, William Feagans and Herbert Burton. Burial was in the family lot in White Oak Cemetery.

4-H Club Activities

UNION BLUE RIBBON

A lively discussion on feeding hogs brought out the fact that buttermilk can lower the farmer's cost per pound gained.

The club members discussed the constitution used last year and decided to renew it for another year. Leading the meeting was the president, Kenneth Petitt. The club advisors are Robert Agle and Marshall Frock.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite President Eisenhower's plea to Congress not to tamper with his foreign trade program—it barely squeaked through the House untouched—it's in trouble in the Senate.

That program, which Eisenhower calls a cornerstone in dealing with friendly countries, is running into what OPA encountered, during and after the war, while it was still controlling prices. Businessmen paraded before congressional committees to say what they thought of continuing OPA another year.

One after another their story went like this: "I think OPA is necessary and should be continued. But in my special case there ought to be an exception. . . ."

Eisenhower has asked Congress to continue the reciprocal trade program, already in existence 20 years, another three years. Its purpose is to increase world trade and prosperity here and among nations trading with the United States.

Briefly, it works like this: It lets the President lower tariffs on foreign goods imported here provided those same exporting countries agree to lower their tariffs on American goods sent to them.

This means some American industries would have to compete at home with foreign made goods. Various groups who might be affected have fought against tariff cuts on imported, competitive products.

No later than yesterday Eisenhower said that to weaken the "administration proposals by crippling amendments would strike a severe blow at the cooperative efforts of the free nations to build up their economic and military defenses. It could mean a retreat to economic nationalism and isolationism."

On Feb 18 the program passed the House by a narrow margin but unchanged. Then it moved over to the Senate, where, before it could go up to the floor for a vote, the Senate Finance Committee examined it.

"How can we turn back the clock to another day and say that the trade and commerce of the world, especially the free world, again should be circumvented and departmentalized to the point almost of the stagnation of that commerce? How can we do this and yet hope all free nations will become economically strong and prosperous?"

Also last week George, who has been a staunch Eisenhower supporter on foreign policy, sponsored in the Finance Committee an amendment tacked on to the trade program bill. It was sought by the American textile industry as protection from undue competition from imported Japanese textiles. The White House was said by some senators to have okayed that amendment.

Now the committee is trying to decide whether to approve another amendment to cut down on oil imports.

These amendments or changes in the President's program are not final unless the full Senate later approves them. It may not. But any changes are encouragement to all senators to fight for more amendments to help their own state interests.

Car, Savings Gone

Teacher Meeting Here on Friday

State Legislator Is To Be Speaker

William J. Manahan of Defiance, chairman of the education committee of the Ohio House of Representatives, will address the City-County Teachers Association Friday.

At the joint luncheon meeting at the Country Club at 1 P. M., he will report on the findings of the Ohio School Survey Committee—of which he is also chairman—and pending legislation.

City and county schools will be dismissed at noon Friday. All teachers are expected to attend.

Members of the nomination committee to select new officer candidates are Chairman Hugh Rea, principal of Rose Avenue School, Mary Theresa Craig of Bloomingburg School and Conner Merritt, Eber principal.

Offices to be filled are president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and a three-year executive committee post. Present officers are Harry Phillips, president; Mrs. Mary Gillespie, vice-president; and Mrs. Gilbert Biddle secretary-treasurer.

Members of the executive committee are Frank Creamer, Mrs. Helen Pope and the member whose term expires, Miss Jane Trent.

U. S. Photos, Gears Seen In Peiping

TOKYO (AP)—A recent Japanese visitor to Red China told today of seeing 10 or 15 captured Americans' photographs and hundreds of U.S. parachutes and airmens' uniforms in Peiping.

Shozo Murata, who conducted unofficial trade talks in Red China in January, said he could not be sure whether the Americans pictured were the airmen and civilians held on what the United States has called "trumped - up charges" of espionage. Nor could he tell whether the equipment might have been captured in North Korea.

C of C Voting Deadline Not Until May 28

The deadline for voting in the "primary by mail" to select the candidates for directors of the Chamber of Commerce is further away than was thought at first.

Through some unexplainable confusion in dates, a whole month was lost; Members of the Chamber have until May 28, not just April 28, to get their ballots in.

Glen Allen, the Chamber manager was not disturbed over the mix-up in dates; he said the announcement that the deadline was April 28, instead of May 28, might spur the members into getting their selections for director nominees in sooner.

Under the new plan of electing directors of the Chamber, a ballot listing all of the resident members' names is sent to every member. Each member is to mark ten of the names for candidates for the board of directors, five of whom are to be elected at another similar "election by mail" between May 28 and June 13 when the results will be announced at the annual meeting.

Allen said about 100 of the primary ballots had been returned. He commented that these all came in within a week or so after they were sent out but that not many had come in since then. For this reason, he said, the mix-up in the primary voting deadline might bring in more ballots.

Pottery Workers Get Wage Boost

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP) — A new wage increase granted 28,000 pottery industry employes throughout the nation will cost management up to $500,000 a year.

The agreement was reached in negotiations held in New York between the AFL Brotherhood of Operative Potters and the U.S. Potters Assn. It was the first increase granted pottery workers since December 1952. The new pact increases the pay of minimum-rated men employes five cents to $1.42 hourly; the pay of minimum-rated women employes five cents to $1.20½. The increase hits a third of the 28,000 employes, with the other two-thirds receiving no raise.

Purdue Offers Soybean Data

How Profits May Be Greatly Increased

Good stands and high yields of soybeans can mean extra profits for Corn Belt farmers since soybeans have forged to the top as a cash crop in many states, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

The commitee lists these suggestions by Purdue University for getting good profits from soybeans:

(1) Use high quality inoculated seed and plant on a well prepared seed bed.

(2) Have your soils limed.

(3) Use 100 pounds of starter fertilizer to get the beans started ahead of the weeds and provide sufficient additional nutrients to carry the crop through to maturity.

(4) Use weed control before and after planting.

"Controlling weeds and supplying sufficient nutrients are particularly important," says a statement issued by the committee. "Well fed soybeans get the jump on weeds. Then during the growing season it is important to control as much as possible weeds in and between the rows."

Having enough potash is particularly essential the committee says. A shortage of potash is reflected in reduced yields, shriveled beans and poor quality. The crop not only loses weight, but the beans you do market will bring a lower price because of lower quality.

Fliers Wreck More Autos Than Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has expressed "serious concern" about auto accidents.

In a report to a House Appropriations subcommittee, the Air Force said its men have about five times as many auto accidents as airplane accidents.

In 1954 there were 757 fatalities from airplane accidents and 608 from auto crashes. But 5,324 GIs were injured in auto accidents, compared with 529 in planes.

Altogether there were 6,460 auto accidents, 1,326 airplane crashes.

ATTEND THE NURSES MAY DAY BREAKFAST SATURDAY
American Legion Hall

CRAIG'S

May Day Breakfast On Saturday, April 30

The always popular May Day Breakfast, sponsored by the Fayette County Professional Nurses Association, will this year be held from 6 A. M. till 10 A. M. on Saturday, April 30 because May 1 falls on Sunday. The place will be the American Legion Hall on North Fayette Street.

This always has been accorded fine patronage in this community, not only because the nurses' organization is a popular one in the public mind, but also because the money made on this breakfast goes for a worthwhile purpose. The proceeds are used largely to help finance the nursing education of girls who sincerly desire to enter this respected profession.

Nearly every year a part of the proceeds are used in providing some new piece of needed equipment at the Fayette County Memorial Hospital. Also another fine gesture made this year was a contribution to the county health department to help defray some of the extra expense involved in the polio drive and in connection with the plans for free polio Salk vaccine shots to be given school children.

A new feature of the May Day Breakfast this year will be the appearance of members of the Future Nurses of America organization in the high school. This group of girls with ambition to enter the profession of nursing, will assist the Pinafore Girls now in training at the local hospital who are interested in professional hospital positions, in serving the breakfast. As usual all will be aided substantially by members of the American Legion Auxiliary who have helped every year in the preparation of the food.

The tremendous demand for professional nurses and other capable nursing personnel is nation-wide. The efforts to increase the number entering this profession is being pressed by all who know what the shortage of nurses mean in nearly every locality.

For this reason anything the public can do to stimulate this interest and to help with funds to provide more nurses, is a worthwhile move for the public good.

Also, those who have attended these May Day Breakfasts here realize that they get more than their money's worth in the very appetizing meal which always has featured this annual event here, so it is up to all of us to be liberal in our patronage.

No. 1 Dog Lover Is Dogless

By M. Goldsmith
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

If you spurn tradition and shave off all his hair except for "cuffs" on his legs, a tuft on his tail and a "corset" round the middle, then both you and your dog are suspect in the eyes of Fritz Ruef, recently elected president of the International Cynological Federation.

Cyno comes from the Greek for dog, and Ruef probably knows more about the etiquette and society gossip of the dog world than anyone else alive.

Differences over such important matters as a poodle's haircut have led to a great schism among the world's dog lovers, and Ruef is the undisputed leader of the traditionalists.

There can be no argument about a poodle's hair, according to Ruef. "To be a poodle," he says, "a poodle must have lots of hair in front and a crew cut behind. This standard was fixed long ago by the Paris Poodle Club and accepted as binding by all self-respecting owners. It is obvious that a poodle owner who insists on dressing up his dog like a clown cannot claim equal rights in an association such as ours."

One of the main causes of the schism among the world's dog lovers was a dispute over the social register of boxers—the four-legged variety. Traditionally, a boxer's litter is limited to four puppies, and any puppies born after the fourth are destroyed to preserve the quality of the breed.

Unfortunately, Ruef said, base profit motives led to a refusal by certain "fraudulent elements" to kill off the excess puppies. "They even wanted us to enroll this illegal offspring in our official register," Mr. Ruef exclaimed with indignation. "When we naturally refused, all those who were violating the rules became dissatisfied, and that is how the trouble started."

For a time, the split remained limited to Switzerland, but the rebels soon organized themselves in other countries and Ruef's International Cynological Federation is now at war with the rebel International Cynological Union in most countries of the eastern hemisphere. Only the United States, Russia and some relatively dogless countries are not yet involved.

Recognized "federation" dogs, says Ruef, are a distinct social cut above the upstart "union" dogs, not to mention the untouchable class of dogs who don't belong to any organization. "Federation" dogs are rigorously forbidden to have any social contacts with "union" or unorganized dogs. Mis-alliances do occur, Ruef admitted, but the offspring doesn't have a dog's chance of inclusion in any social register recognized by the federation.

In Switzerland alone, the dogs' social register, Hundstammbuch lists more than 53,000 blue-blooded dogs born since 1900. The annual supplements to the register are handsomely printed by the printing works Ruef runs in Langenthal.

The federation is recognized as the ruling body of the dog world by dog lovers' associations in nearly every non-Communist country of the eastern hemisphere. American dogs have a separate organization.

Asked whether this meant that American or Russian dogs are not allowed to associate with European dogs, Ruef said: "Such unions are very uncommon. I cannot remember that such a case was ever inscribed on our register, but, of course, there may have been liaisons of which we were not informed."

But his career contains a hidden tragedy. He does not have a single dog of his own.

"As a young man, I bred Irish terriers and dachshunds," he said. "But now I have to devote every spare minute to my organizational work, and have no time left for dogs of my own."

Help In Emergency For Accident Victims

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Quick and proper emergency treatment at the scene of an auto accident might mean the difference between life and death. You don't have to be a doctor to give first aid to a seriously injured motorist. A physician should be called, of course. But in the meantime you should be able to help out.

Stopping Heavy Bleeding

I told you yesterday what to do to revive an unconscious person and what to do for shock. It's even more important to know how to stop serious bleeding. The loss of even a quart of blood might be fatal.

Now unless you are well trained in first aid, I know you aren't going to remember the various pressure points about the body of blood.

However, there are a couple of things you should remember. Blood from the veins is bluish red in color and flows steadily. Blood from a cut artery comes in spurts and is bright red.

To control bleeding from an injure arm or leg resulting from a severed artery, apply pressure on the side of the limb toward the heart. For bleeding from a vein apply pressure on the side away from the heart.

Applying a Tourniquet

Probably the best means of applying this pressure is with a tourniquet. In an emergency, you can make a tourniquet from a handkerchief or even a necktie. Fold these so they form a flat band about an inch wide or maybe a little wider. Knot this tourniquet about the injured limb. Then insert a stick between the knot and twist to apply pressure.

Now you've got to be very careful. Use only enough pressure to stop the bleeding. Every ten or fifteen minutes, if it takes that long for a doctor to arrive, release the pressure for a minute or two. Never use a rope or cord as a tourniquet. This might do more harm than good.

One more thing. If you aren't sure what you should do, it's best to do nothing. But be prepared to give the doctor whatever assistance he might need.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Mrs. P. J.: I have a continual rolling of gas in my stomach and always belch gas—which is very embarrassing. Could you tell me what I should do?

Answer: The formation of large amounts of gas in the bowel may be due to a number of causes, one of the most common being gall-bladder infection. Eating foods which contain too much starch and sweets might result in the formation of a great deal of gas. An examination should be made to determine the cause; then it can be eliminated. Individuals who eat too fast, or who are nervous, frequently swallow a great deal of air with their food. This air accumulates and pressure results. One should eat slowly and food should be chewed at all times.

The Definition Of A Reactionary

By George Sokolsky

A person is called a reactionary who moves within the traditions of American life and history. The definition is my own but the facts behind it are demonstrable. I take the following from a statement made by Louis Hollander, President of the New York CIO, who said:

"I believe we can force the reactionaries of both old parties to form their own third party. Then labor can sit down and rebuild one of the two remaining parties, supporting the liberals who stay on."

Hollander happened to say this because someone else, at the particular meeting he was addressing, had suggested that labor form its own party which would seem to be the logical and honest way of going about it if anyone desired a third party.

Under the tutelage of the ADA, however, some labor leaders, socialists, ancient New Dealers and forensic Republicans have concluded that the best way to walk off with another man's possessions is to go into his home and take over. Why bother to form a third party when it is possible by infiltration to steal both the Republican and Democratic parties?

The question then arises as to whether it can be done. In New York State, the ADA has more or less been pushed out of the Democratic party. Neither Governor Averell Harriman nor Carmine Desapio, who runs Democratic policies, will have anything to do with this amalgam of people on the left. On the other hand, the Republican party in this great state is not so resistant to the ADA because being out of power is very unpleasant after so long a period in office and maybe with a little assistance the Republicans can get somewhere.

Besides, the only Republican elected last year, the Attorney-General, Jacob Javits, is on the untraditional side and nobody will call him a reactionary, no matter what else he might call him. In fact, if Hollander's friends manage to infiltrate and capture the Republican party in New York, it would not be necessary for Javits to leave it, no matter what unseemly company he would be forced to keep.

Actually none of this is likely to happen on a national scale in the near future but it does indicate a manner of mind. The ADA has sought to be a balance of power among the Democrats and has only failed because of a Southern repugnance for Socialists which may be overcome, in due course, as the industrialization of the South proceeds.

Among the Republicans, these days, the only fixed principle is that President Eisenhower is a great and popular man who cannot be defeated in 1956. Apart from that, the party in power, as it were, views life and events pragmatically, hoping that more credits will be gained than minuses and that in due course everything will work out well enough, although in these muddled times no one can look forward to perfection. Republicans generally accept it as inviolable truth that Eisenhower cannot be defeated in 1956 no matter who runs against him and that no other Republican can be elected.

The theft of a political party by infiltration, two of them, as Hollander advocates, is only possible because of the debasement of public morals. In Hollander's circles, it would be called "khutzpa," which may be defined as aggressive devil-may-care impudence and sometimes even imprudence. And it is even possible that to one who can be guilty of "khutzpa" go the spoils because other men, less forward, shun the battle and give the field.

If political parties were membership organizations in the United States, as they are in Great Britain, capture of the party by infiltration would not be so likely and probably impossible. In Great Britain it is not within reason to conceive of a group of men banding together to capture both the Conservative and Labour parties and offering Sir Anthony Eden and Clement Attlee the choice of organizing a third party. If nothing else, public morals would be outraged by such a thought.

Yet in the United States not only is the ADA seeking to do exactly that but Mr. Hollander boasts of it and offers it as a program. And the reason that anyone dares do it is that both parties have become mostly vehicles for election, not agencies for the struggle over public principle.

Announcing — America's newest, lowest, smartest 4-door Sedan

Newest model in Mercury's Montclair Series lets you enjoy "hardtop" beauty with 4-door convenience

It's the newest Mercury of them all—the Montclair 4-door Sedan, and the photograph shows you that not one bit of the original Montclair hardtop beauty has been lost. It has the same dramatic lowness—only 58¾ inches from road to roof.

And see how convenient it is to get in and out. Everyone who admires hardtop styling, but wants the roominess and convenience of a 4-door model, can now eat his cake, and have it too!

198-hp Super-Torque V-8 with dual exhausts

Seldom has an engine caused as much enthusiastic comment from auto editors. And once you drive a Montclair, you'll see why. It gives you instant, on-the-spot pickup at every speed—from zero to super-highway limits. A four-barrel carburetor, unique new high-compression spark plugs, and dual exhausts are yours at no extra cost. Features like these are usually extra on medium-priced cars.

The Mercury Montclair offers a new optional power feature—power lubrication. And it's exclusive with Mercury in the medium-price field. You push a button on the dashboard and vital parts of your car are automatically lubricated. You can also choose optional power steering, power windows, power brakes, 4-way power seat and Merc-O-Matic Drive.

Why not come in and see this newest Mercury? It costs a lot less than you think. And right now your present car is worth a lot more than you might think on a trade-in at your Mercury dealer's.

Places Needed for 132 To Stay While Here for Band Festival

Places are needed for 18 girls and 114 boys to sleep in Washington C. H. or nearby farms the night of May 13.

They will be among the 370 who are coming here for the high school Band Festival.

The committee of parents of members of the Washington C. H. High School Band has arranged for places for the other 248 to spend the night—232 of them in the homes of members of the WHS Band, Mrs. C. E. Rhoad, who is co-chairman of the committee with Mrs. Albert Bryant, said.

The 80-piece band from Lancaster, the 103-piece band from Newark, the 92-piece band from Springfield and 99-piece band from Mansfield will start coming into Washington C. H. on the morning of May 13, but they will be too busy to spend much time with their hosts for that night.

There will be a practice in the afternoon, a dinner in the evening and then the big concert on the football field at Gardner Park that night.

After the concert, there is to be what is described as a military ball (because the band members will all be in uniform) in the high school gym that will last until about midnight.

So, the youngsters will not be able to get to bed at the homes of their hosts for the night until after midnight. Not all of the boys and girls will go to the dance, but most of them will—at least that is the way it has been in the other cities where the Festival has been held. Last year it was in Springfield and the year before that in Newark.

* * *

THEIR HOSTS will be expected to serve them breakfast Saturday morning, but that will be over by about 8 o'clock because the bands are to assemble for the big parade through the heart of the city to climax the festival at 9 o'clock.

After the parade, the bands will be "on their own." Most of them are expected to head for home almost immediately after the parade breaks up, but others are expected to remain for at least a part of the afternoon.

While there will be 370 teenagers here with the four visiting bands, they will not be nearly all of the visitors here for the two days. That, too, has been the experience in other cities where the festival has been held previously.

Many parents and friends of the band members are expected to come here Friday afternoon and remain over night, but others will be returning to their homes.

However, the committee is making no attempt to provide accommodation for the adults—unless it would be a tip to the restaurants to prepared.

Mrs. Rhoad said the committee was very anxious to get all the overnight accommodations lined up as soon as possible and said it hoped volunteers would call either her (45774) or Mrs. Bryant (48628) and let them know how many young people they can have as their guests Friday night and for breakfast Saturday morning.

MYF Group At Conference

Methodist Youth Fellowship groups of the Washington Circuit today were still talking about the experiences they had during the week end they spent at the youth conference at Cleveland Bible College.

Churches of the Washington Circuit are White Oak Grove (Buena Vista) and Harmony-Mt. Olive.

The theme of the conference was: "The Call to Arms for Christ."

Counselors who accompanied the group were Avanelle Betz, Lois Stephenson, Joanne Schamaun and Paul Stuckey.

Children's Specialist To Head Heart Clinic

Dr. Robert Lyon will be here Friday to conduct a heart clinic at the County Health Department. He is a member of the Pediatrics Department of Cincinnati General Hospital.

The clinic — from 10 A. M. to 2:30 P. M. — is sponsored by the Department of Public Welfare, Division of Crippled Children's Services. Dr. Lyon is also medical director of the Cincinnati Children's Heart Association.

It will be the eighth annual clinic here and is limited to Fayette County children up to 15 years of age who are sent by their family physicians for examination. It gives the children benefit of specialized examination, including electro-cardiogram, by Dr. Lyon and his skilled staff.

Reports of the findings are to be sent directly to the child's attending physicians by the examiner. Approximately 23 children will be examined.

Escapees Nabbed In Stolen Auto

MOUNT VERNON (AP)—Authorities plan to start extradition proceedings today against two escapees from a Virginia prison farm, captured by state highway patrolmen near Mount Vernon.

The pair, Leonard Justus, 22, serving time for armed robbery, and Clarence Draigger, 22, sentenced for shooting with intent to kill, escaped April 18 from the Woodbridge State Prison Farm near Washington, D. C.

Police added they were riding in a stolen car with stolen plates when stopped yesterday on U.S. 36, south of Mount Vernon.

Bring in your blue prints for a FREE Adequate Wiring layout

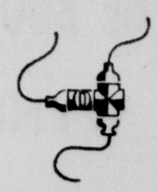

...and insure electrical convenience in your home!

Why build an inconvenient house? The Adequate Wiring Bureau will lay out wiring plans on the blue prints of your new home in the planning stage, applying all the national Adequate Wiring standards: locating switches conveniently, placing receptacles and light outlets, designating which outlets the switches control; denoting size of service wires, number of circuits and kinds of circuits —whether lighting, general appliance or special appliance.

There is no charge of any kind for this service. Two free inspections of the new building are made. First, when rough wiring is in; second, final inspection of the finished wiring.

If the wiring job meets the national standards for safety, convenience and adequate service, an Adequate Wiring Certificate is awarded. Also, an Adequate Wiring sticker is placed on the meter panel board containing the contractor's name and a poster "This house meets Adequate Wiring Standards" is erected to proclaim the fact during the remainder of construction.

FREE Advice on Bringing Old Wiring Up-to-date

Modernizing the wiring of a house that was built years ago is not always a big job. Sometimes one additional circuit relieves danger of overload. Finding out costs nothing. Adequate Wiring Bureau advice is free. This Company cooperates in this activity because we consider it part of our service to help customers obtain the utmost possible benefit from the use of electricity.

Martha Washington DAR Members Elect Officers At Regular Meeting

Members of the Martha Washington Committee of DAR assembled at the home of Mrs. Ray French on the Circleville Road, for the regular April meeting. Her assisting hostesses were Mrs. J. H. McWilliams and Mrs. John Leland and fifteen members were present.

Mrs. John D. Forsythe gave a most interesting report on the National convention of DAR held recently in Washington D. C.

Mrs. Willard Bitzer, chairman, conducted the business session which included a report on the progress in work which is being done to restore the old cemetery in this city.

Mrs. Ronald Cornwell reported that seven members had met at the cemetery a few days ago and cleared away debris which had accumulated through the year which was removed by the city crew of workman.

She also told the members that poisonous weeds had been destroyed and plans have been made to meet Saturday, April 30 to continue work on the project which will include the building of a brick wall around a family lot, transplanting lilacs along the fence adjoining the railroad tracks and repairing damaged tombstones which are among the things that call for immediate attention.

Mrs. Forsythe also reported on the New Miami Trace Chapter made up of Children of the Committee which is in charge of Mrs. Richard Rankin, who was absent. Installation of this chapter is being planned for Saturday, May 7 at 2 P. M. in the basement of First Presbyterian Church and mothers of the children will be special guests.

The members also made plans to visit the William Harrison Home in Springfield, which will take the place of the May meeting and Mrs. Dwight Duff was appointed to make arrangements for the tour. Those wishing to make the trip are to contact Mrs. Duff before May 20.

The nominating committee, presented the names of members who were chosen to serve for the coming year, who are as follows: Mrs. Willard Bitzer, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Christopher, vice chairman; Mrs. Dean Powell, secretary and Mrs. Robert Green, treasurer.

The program for the evening was built around the subject "Conservation," which is of vital interest to this organization and included the showing of the film, "The Years To Come" sponsored by the United States Department of Agriculture and secured through the courtesy of the local conservation office.

Mr. Horace Wilson and Mr. Ray French, assisted in the obtaining of the film and the projector which was loaned by the Farm Bureau.

Ohio's Youths Proposing Tougher Laws On Motoring

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The laws governing Ohio motorists would be tougher today if measures passed by the model Legislature which took over the Statehouse last weekend had been for keeps.

There would be a heavier penalty on a driver leaving the scne of an accident.

Liability insurance would be required.

The minimum age for getting a license would be higher.

Altogether, 26 bills or resolutions pertaining to the operation of motor vehicles were drawn up by the more than 400 teenage legislators taking part in the annual Youth and Government Program of the Ohio Young Men's Christian Assn.

The model Legislature produced 103 bills, and "Governor" Joe Sheridan of Fairborn approved 22 of them. The legislators overrode the governor's veto of a 23rd bill, passing into "law" a measure to establish a state board of education.

One measure pertaining to motoring—killed in committee—would have banned road signs which rhymed.

The youthful legislators tried unsuccessfully to establish daylight savings time throughout the state, to create a state institution for alcoholics, to require installation of cafeterias in all public schools and to prohibit sale of "realistic" toy firearms.

The high school students, representing Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y clubs throughout the state, wound up the final session of the fourth model Legislature yesterday. The real Ohio Legislature was in weekend recess.

Trees Donated As Memorial

CLEVELAND (AP)—Yesterday, in the rain, Michael M. Montagano took 12 flowering crabapple trees to residents of a South Euclid street for planting as a memorial to his only son, Capt. Edmund D. Montagano, who crashed to death in his fighter plane 10 years ago.

The street along which the trees will grow is named after the captain—Montagano Boulevard. The flier survived 52 Pacific bombing missions and met death in his native Ohio.

Is This World A Fat Man's Paradise?

Not if you can believe insurance statistics which claim that overweight causes more deaths than cancer. Reliable authorities hold that obesity is responsible for more disability and sickness than any other physical condition. If you are troubled with excess weight read this letter from L. E. Armstrong, 2717 Ralph Ave., Cleveland 9, Ohio who writes: "I had been troubled with a bad heart, and my doctor advised that I lose weight. With the help of Rennel Concentrate I was able to decrease my weight from 224 lbs. to 169 lbs. I would like to tell everyone who is overweight the good that Rennel has done for me."

Thousands of others have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves — if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Insist on and be sure to get Rennel.

Business Boom Seen Likely To Hold Up

U. S. Economic Experts Cite Change In Federal Policy For Optimism

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The business boom looks healthier now to Washington and more likely to last for some time.

That's how many businessmen assess recent actions and policy disclosures. These include the U. S. Treaury's borrowing methods—it shortly will seek two billion dollars or more in "new money"—and the Federal Reserve Board's methods of putting gentle curbs on speculation and letting interest rates rise.

Only two months ago, Washington, along with many in the business world, appeared to doubt that the business upturn would survive the hot weather season. Everyone appeared to be playing it cagey—counting on good times until July, but not making any firm plans for fall.

Chief fears were that the auto building race would grind to a halt by summer and that the home building spree would peter out then too.

But consumers are putting up cash or credit and taking the cars as they roll off the assembly lines and the homes as the builders complete them.

With the public slowly increasing its purchasing power, and the cost of living holding pleasantly steady, good times now appear to have firmer foundations than formerly thought.

The Treasury is expected to announce shortly its plans to raise six billion or more dollars. Four billion of that will be to refinance one year certificates coming due, and the rest for new funds the Treasury will need before the end of th fiscal year, June 30.

Businessmen feel that the way the Treasury raises the new cash will give a tip-off on conditions in the money market itself and on how Washington views the economy in general.

In February, Washington felt the economy strong enough to take a long-term issue and floated a 40-year three per cent bond. Such a bond tends to sop up investment money and might turn a shaky economy downward. But the business and financial markets took the bond issue in stride.

Bankers aren't expecting another long-term bond so soon. They consider a medium-term issue more likely. This belief is based on the guess that Washington considers the economy neither in the need of the lift which more one-year certificate might give or in the danger of runaway inflation which would call for a sopping up of excess funds.

The Federal Reserve has been following a similar middle-of-the-road course, aimed at striking a healthy balance—encouraging business expansion while curbing the tendency to speculation.

It has deemed the economy healthy enough to stop priming it with new credit, and thus let money tighten up a little of its own accord. When interest rates rose, the board followed along by raising the discount rate—that is, what it charges member banks for loans. The board stresses that at the same time it has taken care to see that there is plenty of money available to keep business operating and expanding.

In the stock market, where the froth of speculation first appears on any business boom, the Federal Reserve has twice hiked the margin requirements by 10 points each. As a result, stock traders now must put up at least 70 per cent in cash. This could take some of the joy out of the "public's" urge to dabble in stocks.

But in all these moves from Washington, businessmen note, there is a significant mildness.

The economy isn't being primed, but neithr is it bing drastically rstricted. Speculation is being dampened, but healthy expansion is being encouraged.

"BOOKS AND CROOKS" is the title of the lively comedy these members of Bloomingburg senior class will present Friday night on the stage of the high school auditorium. The plot concerns the misadventures of a pair of bank robbers who choose a high school as their hideout. One of the crooks is a ringer for the principal of the school-- so the collision between books and crooks turns complicated. Members of the cast are (front row, left to right) Geraldine Harris, Barbara Kimball, Joan Smith, and Katherine Robinson; (back row, left to right) Don Anderson, Raymond Mickle, Tom McCoy, Jack Biddle and Orlyn Van Dyne. Not shown are Martha Welsh and Eddie MacFadden. The director is William Baughin of the high school faculty. Curtain time is 8 P. M. Friday.

Lausche Lauds Spunk Showed By Newsboy

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has commended a Toledo newsboy for his display of business experience gained on his paper route.

But the governor said he wasn't sure whether 12-year-old James Sampsell had a claim against the state for loss of part of his route because a highway project cost him 17 customers.

James wrote the governor that he paid 45 cents each for the 17 customers and felt that the state should reimburse him to the tune of $7.65 for their loss.

"You had to give my customers money to move," James wrote, "so why don't you see if the state will pay me for the money I have lost from the new road."

The newsboy did not identify the road.

Lausche replied that others suffered losses because of highway work but that he was particularly sympathetic to the newsboy's problem. The governor said he had referred the matter to State Highway Director S. O. Linzell for study.

Firm U. S. Policy On Isles Urged

COLUMBUS (AP)—Seaborn P. Collins, American legion commander, says the United States should take a firm stand on the defense of Quemoy and Matsu islands off the coast of Red China.

Speaking at the eleventh annual convention of the Ohio State Highway Patrol Auxiliary, composed of Legion members, the national commander said a firm stand by this country would prevent loss of "prestige and two vital stepping stones to Formosa."

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP) — The first scientific census in this Himalayan kingdom shows that rule-of-thumb experts who have been estimating the population around 8½ million were about right. The census turned up 8,431,537.

Crime Rate Up Another 5 Pct. In '54

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. crime rate took another 5 per cent jump in 1954, with major offenses estimated at 2,267,250, FBI director J. Edgar Hoover reports.

This is one major crime committed every 13.9 seconds.

Hoover noted that last year was the seventh consecutive year in which the crime rate rose, and the third straight year in which more than two million serious offenses occurred.

The statistics, published in the FBI's annual Uniform Crime Reports, showed that while the nation's population grew by 7 per cent since 1950, the crime rate was increasing by 26.7 per cent during the same period.

The 1954 figures were based on data supplied to the FBI by 5,787 law enforcement agencies covering 90 per cent of the population.

These reported indicated that for every day in 1954, an estimated 34 persons were feloniously slain and 256 other felonious assaults were committed; 49 rapes occurred; 3,674 larcenies were committed; 592 cars were stolen; and there were 185 robberies and 1,422 burglaries.

The rise in the crime rate last year was largely due to increases in robbery (6-8 per cent), burglary (8.4 per cent), larceny, 5.8 pct.

Murders dropped off 4.3 per cent in both city and rural areas and auto thefts declined 4.7 per cent. Rapes showed a 0.7 per cent increase and aggravated assaults rose 1 per cent.

Ywca Observes 100th Birthday

NEW YORK (AP)—Some 5,000 persons attended a service at Radio City Music Hall Sunday as part of the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Young women's Christian Assn.

The morning service featured the Westminster College Choir. Teenagers from each state, the District of Columbia and Hawaii took part. Blanche Thebom, Metropolitan Opera singer once associated with the YWCA at Canton, Ohio, narrated the centennial service.

Pike Chalks Death

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—The first fatality on the Ohio Turnpike was recorded today when William Moore, 19, of New Springfield, died of injuries received when his car slammed into a heavy steel guard rail.

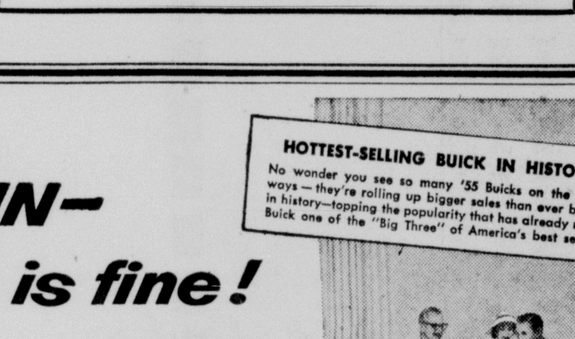

Sound too high pitched to be heard is used extensively in industry to clean materials.

HOTTEST-SELLING BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways — they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster.....$81.70 Radio & Antenna.....$92.88

UNLESS we miss our guess, a lot of surprised people are going to do some new back-of-an-envelope arithmetic when they see the Buick price shown here.

Because we know that many folks still don't realize how little a Buick really costs—that the dollar difference between this big Buick SPECIAL and the leading smaller cars has virtually disappeared.

Buick Sales Are Soaring As Never Before

But more and more of them are finding it out. And that's a major reason why Buick production and Buick sales are soaring to all-time highs today—and why Buick again is outselling all other cars, regardless of price range, except two of the well-known smaller cars.

Big reason, too, for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of automobiles, giving you a choice in any price class—the rock-bottom-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the supremely spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But above all, more and more people are discovering that the price you pay for a Buick buys more sheer automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

More advanced styling, more deep-down comfort, more pure power thrill, more ride steadiness and handling ease and solidity of structure.

For here you get Variable Pitch Dynaflow† —the new wonder drive born of modern aeronautics to give you instant full-power getaway and acceleration when needed—and far better gas mileage when cruising.

Why not come see us this week, for sure? We'll be happy to have you test-pilot a new Buick, just for the sheer thrill of it—and show you quite clearly that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

Drop In Baseball Audience Not Worrying Club Owners

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Great alarm already is being voiced in some quarters over the drastic dropoff in big league attendance. It has, indeed, been a disturbing feature of the new season. But note that there have been no howls of anguish to speak of from the club owners, the men who should be most concerned.

The truth is that, through the golden harvest from television and radio, the majors year after year are approaching closer to semi-independence of the fan who only a short time ago supported them totally by the dollars he left at the turnstile. The fan still is picking up the tab, all right, but he's doing it at the drugstore counter and in the corner delicatessen.

A live audience of only 3,874 showed up at Ebbets Field on a recent day to watch Robin Roberts, the game's greatest pitcher, try to stop the Brooklyn Dodgers short of a record 10 straight opening victories. On the same day, a bare 2,932 paid their way into Yankee Stadium across the river.

The Brooklyn players were audibly disturbed and predicted that if things didn't pick up in a hurry it would be necessary to move the club to Los Angeles, or somewhere. President Walter O'Malley only smiled and muttered platitudes about the weather being bad and the season young. He obviously wasn't worried at all.

And he needn't have been from what we were told by the boss man of another big league club about a month ago. He said that his team—no pennant winner—would have a guaranteed income of something over $800,000 before the season opened, and he estimated that several others would exceed that figure, possibly reaching the million mark.

That is better, he pointed out, than an added million in attendance, for it is pure velvet and there is no accounting to visiting clubs, who cut in for 20-plus per cent of the gate receipts. The Saturday Game of the Week, which goes into and damages only minor league territory, has added an important sum to the big league pool for the past two seasons.

Louisville Gains In AA Standings

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Louisville moved up another notch in the standings last night to support its ranking as pre-season favorite in the American Association.

The combination of Toledo's 6-5 verdict over St. Paul and Louisville's 24-5 rout of Denver left the Sox atop the heap with a 7-3 record, put Louisville second by one game and slipped the Saints a notch to third.

Omaha whipped Indianapolis, 11-5, and Minneapolis trimmed Charleston, 5-4, in other games.

Rocky, Lulu Win Matches Aired By TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Castellani and Lulu Perez, the victors in the two network television fights last night, today were looking forward to May fights while their victims began involuntary layoffs because of nasty cuts.

Castellani, the third - ranking middleweight contender from Cleveland, staggered Cuba's Chico Varona several times to win a 10-round decision at St. Nicholas Arena. Varona, outweighed 159¼ to 156¾, required 10 stithes to patch up a cut over his left eye.

A 5-1 favorite, Castellani won by 8-2 round scores from each of the three officials.

Rocky is expected to sign for a May 23 show at the same arena against either Milo Savage of Salt Lake City, or Paul Pender, of Boston. It was the 27-year-old ex-Marine's third straight victory.

A 6-5 underdog, Perez, of Brooklyn, won by unanimous decision. Garcia was gashed in two places. A cut over his left eye, inflicted in the second round, required six stitches. A deep wound high on his forehead, suffered in a head collision in the last round, needed 10 stitches.

Carter, Smith To Clash Again

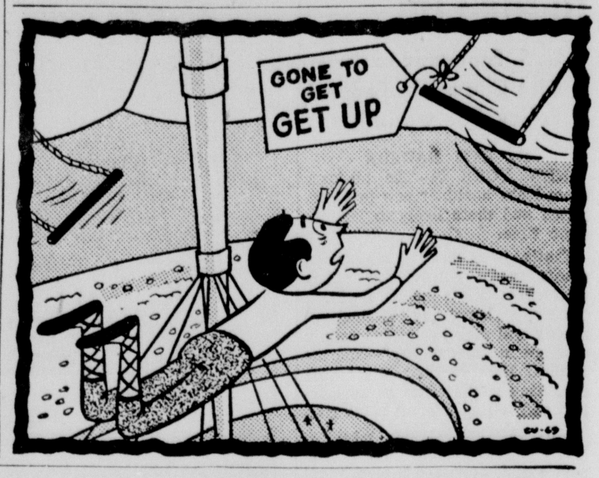

NEW YORK (AP)— Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter and Wallace (Bud) Smith, of Cincinnati, will clash in a 15-round title bout in Boston Garden June 1.

It will be their second meeting. Carter outpointed Smith in Cincinnati March 28, 1950.

Carter broke into the money when he won the crown by stopping Ike Williams in the 14th round. Since then, the New Yorker has been cashing in. This will be his 11th title fight.

Smith, National AAU champion in 1948, hopes this will be his turning point. The broad-shouldered Negro has had only 47 fights in more than six years of pro battling for a 31-33-5 record.

West Teams To Get Look At Easterners

First Real Test Of Power Coming Up In Major Leagues

The Associated Press

Now comes the first test of power in the American and National League pennant races.

Milwaukee and St. Louis get a first-hand look at all this early nonsense by Brooklyn in the National. And the New York Yankees see what's new with the Chicago White Sox and Cleveland.

The first East-West meetings of the season open today and tonight, but only the Yanks and White Sox get right down to business. They play a day game at Comiskey Park. The rest of the AL schedule sends Washington into Cleveland, a point of no return for the Senators, and Baltimore to Detroit this afternoon with Boston at Kansas City tonight.

In the National, Milwaukee and St. Louis get around to Brooklyn in a few days. Tonight, the Braves are at the Polo Grounds against the New York Giants and the Cards are at Philadelphia. Cincinnati is at Brooklyn and Chicago at Pittsburgh in another night pair.

Milwaukee comes East with Bobby Thomson in fine shape, its pitching as good as expected and only 2½ games behind the Brooks despite the Dodgers' 11-2 mark.

Manager Leo Durocher, still 5½ games off the pace, figures his lads are "all straightened out" now. He'll go with either Ruben Gomez (0-1) or Johnny Antonelli (0-2). Bob Buhl (1-0) goes for Milwaukee.

Cleveland, with pitching trouble for a change and winning but one of the last four, tries to fatten up on Washington. The Senators haven't won in Cleveland since Aug. 25, 1953, when they beat Bob Lemon. It's Lemon (3-0) they'll face today with Maury McDermott (1-1) hoping to snap Washington's 12-game losing streak at Municipal Stadium.

Now that Boston's Willard Nixon has beaten the Yanks six straight, the AL figures to revise its "southpaw-the-Bombers" idea. Chicago starts the switch to right-handers with Mike Fornieles (2-0) today vs. Bob Turley (2-0). A victory would send New York into first ahead of the White Sox, who start the game 31 percentage points to the good.

Boston also could climb into the lead with New York if Tom Brewer (0-2) stops the A's. Kansas City goes with Arnie Portocarrero (0-3).

WHS Golfers Lose To Team From Chilli

Washington C. H. High School Golf Coach Bill McCullough described Chillicothe High's golfers as "tremendous" after watching the Washington C. H. boys take a 12-1 shellacking Monday afternoon.

"They're the best team we've faced," he said. "Their scores were all the more remarkable because moisture made the fairways and greens at the Country Club here very slow."

All four boys from the Ross County school broke 90 and only one failed to break 85. Only two Lions scored under 90.

Jim Erwin led the victors with an 81 worth three points. Two of his mates had 84s and another carded an 89 for four points apiece.

Fred Cahall of Washington C. H. garnered his team's lone point with an 84. He was followed by Roger McClean with an 89; Dick Dawson, 97; and Fred Belles, 112. The latter three failed to pick up points.

The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Browns on Sept. 26, 1926 played a double header in two hours and seven minutes.

Hartack Points For Jock Mark

The 23-year-old native of Johnstown, Pa., came within one of the national single-day saddle record of seven, set by Jimmy Sylvester at Ravenna Park Oct. 18, 1930. But more important to Hartack, he gained some ground on Willie Shoemaker, the nation's leading winner.

Blue Grass Winner Eyed As Derby Star

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Nobody around Keenland is ready to argue the question that Nashua is the horse to beat in the Kentudky Derby—not yet.

Come Thursday's 30th running of the Blue Grass Stakes, however, and they might suggest that some fellow like Flying Fury or Make Ready will have a say in who gets the wreath of roses May 7 at Churchill Downs in Louisville.

The $25,000 added Blue Grass, a 1⅛ mile test just ⅛ of a mile short of the Derby distance, has produced a few derby favorites. But the last time its winner went onto take the derby was in 1942, when Shut Out did the trick.

Racing Panel Decision Eyed

COLUMBUS (AP) — Racing commission Chairman Zoltan Gombos today was undecided whether to appeal a court decision that erased the suspension of Henry Green. Both men are Clevelanders.

Common Pleas Judge Byron Gessaman of Franklin County yesterday upset the commission's suspension of Green, who was barred last Oct. 13 from Ohio tracks.

Green, who has interests in several Ohio race tracks, was accused of interfering with a commission inspector last Sept. 20 at the Hamilton track. Green was charged with refusing to let the inspector into the money room.

Early Wynn Gets Nod To Take Mound

CLEVELAND (AP) — Early Wynn, who came down with bronchial pneumonia just before the season began, makes his first pitching start of the season tomorrow for the Cleveland Indians.

The big righthander won 23 and lost 11 last year and has been missed badly by the Tribe's faltering pitching staff.

Bob Lemon, the only Indian chucker with more victories than defeats, works today as the Tribe opens a two-game set against the Washington Nats. Lemon, who has a 3-0 record, will be opposed by southpaw Maurice McDermott who is 1-1. Against the Nats last year, Lemon had a 2-1 record, while McDermott was 1-3.

Aside from Lemon, the highly touted Cleveland pitching has been weak during the first 11 games. Mike Garcia, the other member of the Big Three, has one victory against two losses; rookie Herb Score is 1-1; Bobby Feller is 0-1 and Art Houtteman is 1-1.

Wynn has worked one game in relief since getting out of bed. He went to the mound Sunday in a game the Tribe already had lost to Detroit and pitched two scoreless innings, giving up one hit.

Water Projects Not Paying Way

Ray Tucker

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — An editorial from the Charleston, S. C., News and Courier discloses the fate of most of the Roosevelt-Truman New Deal's waterpower projects. They are not paying their way on a profit-and-loss basis, which is the measure of a private enterprise achievement. They are costing the taxpayers an awful lot of money, including citizens who derive no benefits from their subsidized rates.

The Santee - Cooper project, which harnesses waters of two rivers of the same names above Charleston, S. C., is typical of federal projects in this field. It was built by Harold L. Ickes' Public Works Administration, and then turned over to the state, to be operated by a state authority.

The federal Rural Electrification Administration loaned $13.6 million to a central cooperative to build lines that would haul the state authority's power to 80,000 farmers.

* * *

FINANCIAL JAM—As recently reported here, the state authority has become involved in such a financial jam that it announced an increase of the rate to farmer consumers from 6 to 7.2 mills per kilowatt hour. The farmers cannot pay the increase especially as they were promised cheap hydroelectricity by F.D.R., Harry S. Truman, Harold L. Ickes, and Oscar Chapman, the last Democratic occupant of the office of secretary of the interior.

In order to keep the price of power low enough for agricultural use, the South Carolina cooperative has had to ask for a three-year deferment on repayment of its $13.6 million to the REA.

In short, both the state authority, which still owes $29 million to Uncle Sam and about $15 million to Wall Street bankers, and the cooperative, are bankrupt.

This experiment in so-called "cheap power" will undoubtedly influence Congress in current discussions of such projects as the Tennessee Valley Authority, Hell's Canyon and federal versus private development of the waterpower resources at Niagara Falls.

* * *

"Despite denials, Santee-Cooper is in financial hot water. So, an increase in rates charged retail customers was to be expected. Equally as significant as the 10 per cent increase, however, is the dictatorial, off-hand manner in which Santee-Cooper ordered the boost into effect.

"As we have pointed out, taxpaying power companies in South Carolina are regulated by the Public Service Commission. The commission tells these free enterprise companies where they can operate and how much they may charge.

"When a free enterprise company wants to change its rates, it must go hat-in-hand to the commission, explain its position, appear at public hearings, and so forth. Then, after all the facts have been reviewed, the commission decides whether to allow the rate change.

UNTO ITSELF—"Not so with Santee-Cooper," continues the editorial, "which is a law unto itself in South Carolina. Santee-Cooper operates wherever and whenever it pleases. It borrows money in Washington and Wall Street, without specific authorization from anybody but itself. It fixes the pay of its own officials. And it fixes the rates that its customers must pay.

"Santee-Cooper has been given close to $30 million by the American taxpayers. Santee-Cooper has been lent additional millions by the taxpayers at extremely low interest rates. Santee-Cooper has been excused from paying all but token taxes. And Santee-cooper has been left to run its own show, without regulation or supervision."

The News and Courier recommends that Santee-Cooper be sold to private interests. Which, incidentally, is Eisenhower's idea and purpose, believing that the concept of "cheap" public power has been discredited in the public mind.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

We are continuing today the section of the Board of Education's policies dealing with miscellaneous regulations for teachers:

Section 6.1 Duties of Teachers: Duties of teachers will be made known through bulletins and otherwise by the superintendent of schools.

Section 6.2 Arrival time: All high school teachers are to report for duty in their respective rooms at 8:25 A. M. & 12:35 P. M. and the elementary teachers at 8:30 A. M. and 12:35 P. M. Teachers will be expected to arrive on time.

Section 6.3 Departure Time: For the purpose of providing a time for pupil-teacher conferences, inter-teacher conferences to discuss common scholastic problems, to work on records, or to attend committee meetings, all teachers are asked to delay leaving the building in the evening at least 20 minutes after dismissal of school, except on Friday evenings, dismissal of school for special occasions, or by specific permission from the Principal. Elementary teachers, therefore, will remain until 3:50 and high school teachers, with the exception of the coaches, until 4:00 P. M.

Section 6.4 Records and Reports: Teachers shall keep such records and make such reports as are required, or as the superintendent may deem necessary.

Section 6.4 Meetings: All teachers are required to attend teachers' meetings called by the Principals or by the Superintendent unless they are specifically excused from such attendance.

Section 6.6 Membership: It is expected that each teacher will become a member of the PTA of his building, and attend every meeting if it is physically possible for him to do so. Each teacher is also expected to belong to the OEA the NEA, city and county associations.

Section 6.8 Dicipline: Teachers Teachers must report to the Principal all cases of sudden illness or accidents of pupils. If it is necessary, the Principal notified should cal. the doctor named on the pupil's information sheet, so that proper treatment may be administered. Parents are to be notified of accidents as soon as possible.

Section 6.8 Disciplene: Teachers are responsible for the orderly deportment of their pupils and for maintaining proper discipline in the classroom and corridors at all times. Teachers are responsible for the disciplining of pupils whenever and wherever an infraction occurs during school time or at a school function. The teacher nearest the infraction should handle it without hesitation.

Section 6.9 Attendance at School Functions: Teachers are expected to attend the public school functions during year. It is very important for our overall program that each teacher take an active interest in and support his colleague's program. In general, teachers are provided with a complimentary ticket to school functions for which an admission is charged High School teachers are required to attend Class Nght, Baccalaureate, and Commencement exercises, unless excused by the Superintendent.

Section 6.10 Ethics: Teachers are expected to abide by the professional code of ethics established by the profession.

Section 6.11 Certification: It is the responsibility of the teacher to provide a copy of his teaching certificate to be kept on file in the Superintendent's office. The teacher is responsible for securing a renewal of his teaching certificate prior to the school year in which the certificate will expire.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Chives Useful in Kitchen

By DEAN HALLIDAY

Distributed by Central Press Association

SOME herbs can be grown in the vegetable garden as border plants thus giving the area a more decorative effect. Thyme, basil and chives, in addition to their kitchen uses, produce flower clusters which in themselves are attractive in garden borders.

Chives are related to the onion family but have a more delicate taste. They are a perennial herb.

As shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph, the foliage of chives grows to a height of six to eight inches. In the spring, the clumps produce small, round flower-heads which are lavender in color. They bloom for several weeks.

The leaves of chives can be cut freely from time to time and the plant will keep on growing. They are at their best before the bloom appears.

When finely chopped, the foliage can be added to salads, omelets, sauces and stews to give a delicate onion-like flavor. The chopped leaves are also excellent when used as a garnish for boiled potatoes.

Clumps of chives should be divided every two or three years or they will develop such a mass of bulbs that the plants starve. Dividing of chives is best done in the spring. The individual bulbs or sections should be replanted about 12 inches apart in the row.

Chives can be grown from seed if bulbs are not available. Any neighbor who has chives growing in the garden usually will be glad to share a few bulbs.

4-H Club Activities

MAGIC MAKERS

Linda Lucas called the last meeting of the Magic Makers to order at the home of Barbara Cahall. Juliana Wilson, the secretary, called the roll and the girls answered with bits of information they had picked up during their tour of Pennington's Bakery.

Marty Woodyard read the treasurer's report, which showed the girls had earned $30.93 at their bake sale last week. The girls then discussed ideas for the Fair booth and for talent night.

Sally Loudner gave a report on the 4-H conference at the high school. Marty Woodyard gave a demonstration on weaving huck towels and Betty Ellen Clarke led the game that closed the meeting.

* * *

JR. HOMEMAKERS

The Jeff Junior Homemakers spent most of their last meeting period working on their projects, towels, aprons and easy-to-make cotton dresses.

Led by the president Jane Smith, the meeting featured demonstrations by Betty Hunt on the proper way to brush teeth and by Karen Mossman on how to set a table.

Gathering at the Jeffersonville school, the girls heard the secretary's and treasurer's reports submitted by Carolyn Ritenour and Gayle Morrow. Sally Kilgore and Virginia Minney served refreshments.

Karen Mossman and one of the advisors, Mrs. Horace Mossman, will be hostesses at the next meeting, on May 5 at the school. Mrs. Howard Keith is the other advisor.

* * *

SEAMIN' DEMONS

The girls of the Seamin' Demons planned a 4-H tour at their last meeting, held at the home of Ann Waters. The girls will visit several places of business.

A discussion on home furnishings was held when it developed that several girls planned to redecorate their rooms.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and the girls went outdoors for their recreation period.

* * *

SENIOR FASHIONETTES

Nancy Mossbarger is the new president and Carol was elected vice president. Judy Welsh is secretary; Mary Cook, treasurer; and Marilyn Rhoades, reporter and sergeant at arms.

The girls planned a pair of sales to be held in the near future. One will be a bake sale; the other will be a sale of dolls. Girls will start work on the dolls at their next meeting.

Isolated Islanders Brought Relief

ST. JOHN'S, NFLD. (AP)—The whaling boat Finback carried food and fuel through heaving ice yesterday to Bell Island, where 12,000 people have been bottled up for several weeks by an arctic ice jam. Little fresh meat is left in stores on the island, three miles offshore, and grocers are selling bread only to regular customers.

Poet's Corner

The golden sun is sinking in the west,
The flowers hang their heads
All covered with dew
And darkness covers the earth
Our daily work is done
And we ask the dear Lord
To keep us safe through the night
And grant us another day of delight

Little League Tryouts Set Up

Progress Reports Made To Board

The times for the player tryouts were set and progress reports were made when the Little League's Operating Board met Monday night in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium.

The board also put the final stamp of approval on the associated membership plan and cut the membership fee from $2 to $1 a year. The fee reduction, it was hoped, would bring more individuals into support of the Little League.

The board's decision on the associate membership question left the subscription to the Little League magazine up to the individual members.

The week of May 9 was designated as Little League Week — the week when a concerted effort will be put behind the member sign-up canvass.

Player tryouts are to be held on two Saturdays, May 7 and 14, the board agreed. Although details are to be worked out later, indications now are that they will be at two fields, the high school field on Circle Avenue and the one at the National Cash Register Co. out South Fayette Street.

Application blanks, also will have a parent consent form attached, are to be passed out to boys of the 8 to 12-year-old (inclusive) age group in the elementary schools of Washington C. H. and Union Township. The Union Township schools are Chaffin, Eber and Wilson.

These application and parent consent forms are to be brought to the tryouts by the boys and given to the managers, who will pass them along to B. M. (Mac) Marlin, the League vice president and player's agent, who will file them.

* * *

JOE PETERS, chairman of the grounds committee, reported progress in the development of Wilson Field. He said the playing field had been laid out and the turf seeded. Work of the dugouts, the grading etc., he said, would start within a week, depending on the weather.

The decision not to hold the tryouts at Wilson Field was based on the feeling that it would be better to wait until the grading was completed and the turf well rooted.

John Breiner, who heads the equipment committee, said contracts had been made with two sporting goods dealers here to supply the regulation uniforms, bats balls and all protective equipment, including a plastic cap liner.

The uniforms, balls, bats and catcher's equipment are furnished from the money contributed to the League by the sponsors. All the boys have to buy is their own shoes (rubber soles with rubber spikes if they want them) and their gloves.

Man Worried

marched right back again, figuring it wasn't worth the bother since it was occupied mostly by politicians and they had troubles enough.

Well, like I said, here I am and today I'm thinking Grandpop would be mighty glad to know us Southerners are running all the really important jobs in Congress again.

We've even got a Texan name of Eisenhower as president and I reckon in view of that we can't grudge him too much that he is a Republican.

All this isn't doing me much good, though, To go anywhere or do anything around here you have got to have a pass and you don't get a pass without a security check.

I'm worrying — and it's all Grandpop's fault—that somebody's liable to ask, "Have you or any member of your family ever belonged to an organization which advocated the violent overthrow of the U. S. government?"

Now what am I gonna tell 'em?

Judge Case Moves To Another Office

Judge John P. Case has moved his office in the court house from the southeast corner of the third floor of the court house to the office room west of the common pleas court room while work of installing the new elevator is underway.

Judge Case spent several hours moving his large library from the former office to the temporary quarters.

When the elevator is installed he will move back into the former office, but it will be necessary to use another door, one through a small private office, to reach the main office, as the regular door to his office will be eliminated by the elevator shaft.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Judge John P. Case has granted a divorce to Charlotte Ladd from Jesse LeRoy Ladd, on grounds of gross neglect of duty. The plaintiff was restored to her former named of Charlotte Pidgeon.

The plaintiff also was awarded defendant's half interest in an apartment house in Tampa, Fla., as alimony, and the defendant was ordered to convey the property to her within five days or the decree automatically acts as a transfer of the property.

She added that the rumor had somehow got started that donors with type "O" blood are not needed." That definitely isn't so," she said. "As a matter of fact, type 'O' is used so much that we need it even more than the others.

"But all types are desperately needed," she summed up.

Transportation to the donor center in the First Presbyterian Church will be furnished by members of the Business and Professional Women's Club. All a donor has to do is to tell the Lioness whom he calls, "I need transportation," and a ride to and from the church will be arranged.

Work On Elevator Is Moving Rapidly

Most of the work on the lower portion of the elevator shaft at the courthouse, including the pit, has been completed, and workmen have moved to the third floor where they have started the work of removing everything in the path of the shaft.

As the elevator shaft will occupy all of the space in front of the main door leading into the offices of the common pleas judge, the door will be blocked off and sealed.

Several feet of the corridor outside the door will be utilized for the shaft.

Annual Meeting Of Grace Church

Church Shows Good Growth In Year

Reports of all department heads were made, new officers elected, and other business given attention at the annual meeting of the quarterly conference of Grace Methodist Church Monday night.

A covered dish supper preceded the business meeting. It was attended by some two score members.

Dr. Edwin H. Dickey, superintendent of the Wilmington District, presided over the meeting and at the close praised the officers for their good work the past year.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengle presented a report on the progress made during the year and goals set up for the coming year.

* * *

THE REPORT stressed the need of additional room for the ever expanding Sunday School and noted the organization of the "Neighborhood Friends," a meeting of which is to be held Monday night.

The trustees' report submitted by Robert Terhune disclosed that the church property is valued at $311,000 and the parsonage $20,000. Insurance covers up to $216,000 on the church, $2,000 on the parsonage $11,600 on the church equipment $2,000 on the parsonage equipment.

A report submitted by Miss Frances White showed total enrollment in the Sunday School of 1,021, an increase of 186 in the enrollment during the past year, when the average attendance was 435 each Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Grim, president of the WSCS, reported total receipts during the year were $4,265.92.

Mrs. O. T. Winter, reporting on benevolences, announced total receipts of $5,373.37 during the year and expenditures of $5,305 in the year.

Ray Brandenburg reported for the finance commission, giving data in connection with church expenditures and the budget for the year.

Ellis Bishop, Troy T. Junk and Miss Ruth Sexton were elected members of the board of trustees, and the same "ex officio" members of the board were re-elected for the year, together with a long list of other officers, including several dozen stewards.

Robert Terhune moved that the members go on record in praise of the fine leadership of the pastor and his wife, and the motion carried.

Election Date Set by Jaycees

Fireworks Fund Help Is Needed

Members of the nominating committee are Dave Ogan, chairman, John Craig, Dick Willis, Dick Arnott and Dr. Larry Burris. Two candidates will be nominated for each office.

Members discussed the sanitary facilities which the Jaycees plan to build at the community park. Bill Williams reported no progress because of the unavailability of a site map. He hoped to have something soon to turn over to Chairman Ogan of that committee, he said.

The Jaycees are planning a weekend overnight camp for their Boy Scout troop Friday and Saturday at Camp Pine.

The independence Day Fireworks Committee reported bids had been received by two fireworks firms. However, doubt was expressed that the Jaycees will be able to put on the fireworks display at the park this year without outside aid. The high cost of the sanitation project was given as the principal reason for this.

Dick Arnott, chairman of the Independence Day Committee, said that any social organization wanting to contribute to the fireworks display should contact Dr. Larry Burris. Other members of this committee are Bob Denton and Dick Willis.

AUTOS IN CRASH

CLARKSBURG — Mrs. William F. Yaple, 49, Chillicothe, was injured severely when her car collided with a car driven by Wayne A. Cottrill, 20, who pulled from a private drive on the Egypt Road in front of the Yaple car. Susan Cottrill, 18, also sustained injuries.

Garage Planned For Company M

Summer Training To Be In Kentucky

Company M of the Ohio National Guard here will probably get a new garage and service center, it was learned Tuesday. Warrant Officer, Robert Goodson, the unit administrator, said that $22,091 was earmarked for that purpose.

Sgt. George A. Haynes, service center mechanic for this area, has been in contact with the state maintenance officer who said the money will be used for the new garage if it is appropriated.

The building will probably be located on a new site outside of town, Goodson said. The State may buy the site or it may be donated. Company M has been authorized 46 vehicles and the unit is now 65 per cent mobile.

* * *

THE OHIO National Guard's training at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., this summer will cost the federal government an extra $90,000. Barring any unexpected changes in plans, this is where Company M will spend its two-week training period.

This estimate, made public yesterday by a House Appropriations subcommittee, was given at a closed hearing by Maj. Gen. William H. Abendroth, chief of the Army division of the Guard.

The Ohio and Indiana guards had been training at Camp Grayling in Michigan. Then Michigan decided to charge each of them $50,000 for this privilege. Indiana accepted this term but Ohio refused.

So a new training base had to be opened for the Ohio guard at Breckenridge, with a resulting increased cost in federal contributions, Abendroth told the group.

The Guard also submitted to the House group a list of construction projects it wants Congress to finance. For Ohio, the guard request included:

Camp Perry—warehouse, $153,000.

Newark—warehouse, $40,000.

Washington C. H.—$22,091.

Lima—$35,194.

Newark—$35,194.

Middletown—$28,590.

Springfield—$28,590.

Canton—$28,590.

Clyde—$28,590.

Portsmouth—$22,091.

Steubenville—$22,091.

Newark—motor vehicle storage building, $440,000.

Camp Perry — ammunition igloos, $24,000.

Free Enterprise To Be Explained To Seniors Here

Representatives of 24 city and county firms will explain to high school seniors of the city and county high schools how the free enterprise system works and the American way of life Wednesday.

Some 220 students, from Washington C. H. and vicinity will meet in the High School auditorium at 9 A. M. to begin the day-long activities known as Business-Industry Education Day.

Glen Allen, general manager of the Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce, will show a film entitled "It's Everybody's Business" as part of the orientation period. The film was produced by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the du Pont Co. Purpose: to help educate people who are entering the industrial field so they will realize their employers are not the natural enemies of the worker.

Supt. of City Schools W. A. Smith will speak as will John Trace, the high school principal.

* * *

AT 10 A. M. the firm representatives will take small groups of seniors to their respective businesses and industries where they will be given information about nearly every phase of their operations.

The general purpose of the day's program — which is held in many cities throughout the country each spring — is to enable seniors to see opportunities for employment; to combat some of the misinformation prevailing about the American business system and to let students see what skills and knowledge they should need in taking their places in industry and business.

From 11:30 to 1 the host firms will entertain their young guests for lunch at various eating places in the city, and then go back for another session on the organization and functions of the business.

The students will be returned to the high school about 3 P. M.

Approximately 80 of the 220 seniors are from county schools and 140 from Washington C. H. High School are to take part in the BIE Day program.

In the days ahead they will have opportunities to write and speak about their experiences and what they learned on BIE Day.

* * *

THEY WILL take home several pamphlets including one in picture form entitled "The Story Behind Your Liberty!" Other pamphlets are "Who Profits from Profits?" "Dollars in Shirtsleeves," "How Profits Help You Live Better" and "May the Best Man Win."

Names of the participating firms and the number of seniors who will go to them were released Tuesday by Mrs. Tom Bush, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. They are Brown-Brockmeyer 5, Cudahy Packing Co. 8, Bishop-Wilson Printing Co. 5, Coca-Cola Bottling Co. 5, Blue Rock Inc., 15, Risch's Drug Store 3, Stitt & Son Greenhouses 5, Frozen Food Lockers 5, J. C. Penney Store 5, Ohio Bell Telephone Co. 5, First National Bank 8.

Washington Savings Bank 6, Fayette County Memorial Hospital 10, Farm Bureau Co-op 24, Brandenburg Motor Sales 10, Carroll Halliday Inc. 6, Med-O-Pure Dairy 10, National Cash Register 20, Armco 30, Cliff Hughes-Ohio Wesleyan Farms 12, Coffman Stair Co. 6, Radio Station WCHO 5, Washington Mortuary Supply 3, and Slagle & Kirk 5.

Bids Are Asked For Reservoir

40-Acre Tract To Be Covered By Water

The Ohio Water Service Co. on May 4 will open bids for construction of the new reservoir on the former Willis land immediately north of Millwood and on the west side of Paint Creek.

The big reservoir will cover some 40 acres and hold upward of 100,000,000 gallons of water, an amount sufficient to tide the city over any ordinary drought.

Bids will be for the reservoir only and a little later a call for bids for building the new pumping, softening and filtration plant east of Paint Creek and north of the standpipe will be issued.

It is expected that scooping out the 40 acres of ground to a depth of nine feet to form the reservoir proper, will require less than two months, for the firm receiving the contract will, in all probability, be equipped with giant earth movers which will eat away the ground at a surprisingly rapid rate.

Top soil about a foot thick will not be utilized in forming the embankments which will be built around the reservoir with the underlying clay and which will be of sufficient thickness to hold the water in the reservoir without danger of giving way.

The site of the reservoir has been tested to make certain that it is not underlaid with gravel which would permit the water to seep out.

No concrete will be used in building the walls about the reservoir, it is indicated.

Bricker Plan Scheduled For Senate Hearing

White House Delay, May Be Seen As 'Cringing' Before GOP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said today a White House decision to delay administration testimony on the Bricker treaty amendment "will be interpreted as cringing before a vocal segment of Republicans."

Kefauver said a decision to postpone "for the time being" testimony from Secretary of State Dulles on the proposed constitutional amendment "was made at the White House, not in the State Department."

Kefauver, chairman of a Judiciary subcommittee which plans to open hearings tomorrow on the proposal by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said he was informed of the postponement by the White House.

At the time, he added, the decision was not known by the State Department's congressional liaison man, Asst. Secretary Thurston B. Morton.

President Eisenhower was asked at a March 23 news conference whether he had changed his views on the Bricker amendment. His reply:

* * *

HE OPPOSED it last year on the ground that it would hinder his conduct of foreign relations. A revised version was narrowly defeated in the Senate. In brief, the proposal would allow a treaty to become effective as internal law only through legislation which would be valid in the absence of a treaty.

Dulles had said he would testify tomorrow before Kefauver's subcommittee, but the senator said word then came from the White House of a change in plans.

Kefauver said he plans to go ahead, but he added:

"This refusal to face up to an obvious effort to weaken the hands of the executive is going to be interpreted as cringing before a vocal segment of the Republican party. It is obvious to me that this stall or delay has its root in the refusal of the administration to risk antagonizing a vocal wing of the GOP."

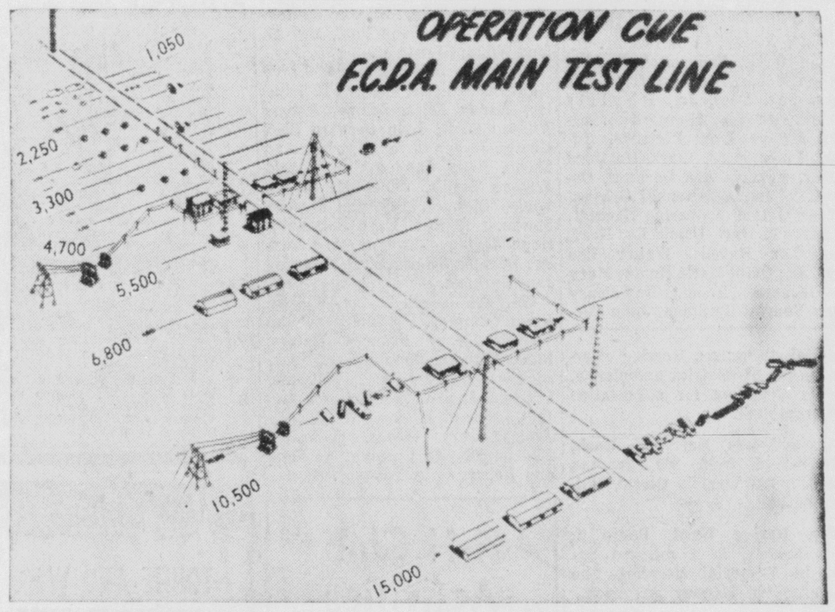

Kefauver said he will start hearings with Bricker as a witness and "someone I will try to get who may be able to represent the administration."

Woodchucks Sought To Dig Bunny Holes

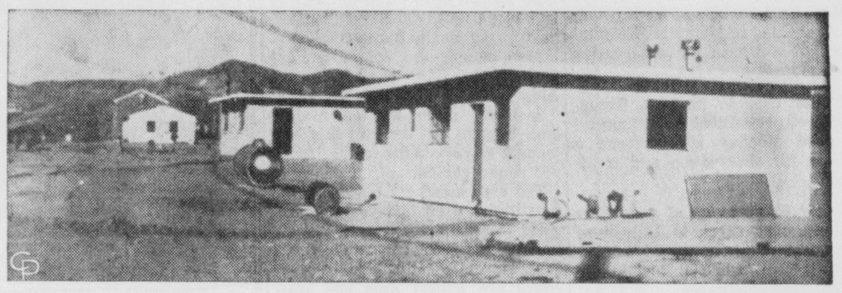

BEAVER ISLAND, Mich. (AP)—The Beaver Island Game Club has asked the State Conservation Department to ship a supply of woodchucks to this Lake Michigan island to dig holes for rabbits. That's right. It seems there are few cottontail rabbits here because there aren't many holes in which they can live. (Rabbits don't dig their own; they borrow holes from other animals.)

'Survival City' Gets Another Reprieve

HERE IS A CLOSEUP of houses in the Yucca Flat, Nev., "Doom Town." They are 4,700 feet from the ground zero tower of the atomic bomb. House in foreground is of reinforced masonry. Beyond, precast concrete slab. Both are without basements. (International Soundphoto)

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev. (AP)—This model community in the desert, given a 24-hour reprieve, is ready and waiting for the big nuclear blast now reset for tomorrow morning, weather permitting.

While sand swept around the jaunty little homes on Doomsday Drive, veteran test officials scanned their weather charts for signs of assurance that no further postponements would be necessary. They were not overoptimistic, however.

The test organization said after postponing the shot yesterday that it could not take the risk of radiation fallout posed by high cross-winds and cloudiness.

Yesterday's postponement was the fourth time in this series that a 500-foot tower shot has had to be delayed under the cautious policy of the Atomic Energy Commission.

This greatest of all public tests involves more than 5,200 persons—military, civilian defense and government-sponsored, plus news, radio and TV men.

* * *

THE DELAY chafed eager volunteers of the Federal Civil Defense Administration who plan to take up trench positions on the outskirts (3,500 yards) of this test town on Yucca Flat. Seven women and 14 men are slated to be in the six-foot trench.

Weary Army tankers from Camp Irwin, Calif., and armored task force soldiers from Fort Hood, Tex., more than 450 in all, were sweating it out at Camp Desert Rock, along with some 2,300 other GIs who will be in trenches.

Forty NATO observers from 12 nations toured the test site yesterday. They will view the big detonation from News Nob, nine miles away, along with about 400 reporters and 600 civil defense observers.

Some civil defense personnel indicated further postponement would force them to leave without seeing the test.

Television and radio broadcasts of the shot will be moved ahead from Tuesday to the day of the blast.

This is the 13th scheduled test in the 1955 atomic series, which an AEC aide, Dr. E. B. Doll of Stanford Research Institute, said has provided many definite answers to blast characteristics at various altitudes.

Dulles Seeks Ban Against Any Propaganda

Direct Conferences Without Nationalists OKd By Sen. George

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles said today "we intend to try to find out" whether the Chinese Communists are sincere in wanting a peaceful Formosa settlement or are "merely playing a propaganda game."

Dulles declared the United States could hold direct talks with Communist China as Peiping has urged provided Nationalist China's interests are not directly at stake.

He said such talks might be held on a cease-fire though he would prefer United Nations sponsorship.

The United States also intends to find out "whether the Soviet Union is sincere" in its proposals for concluding an Austrian treaty, he said.

He declared that developments at the recent Asian-African conference at Bandung, and Russia's declared interest in winding up the Austrian controversy, may be "of decisive importance" for world peace.

Earlier, Sen. George (D-Ga) said the absence of Nationalist China from the conference table should not prevent U. S. peace talks with Red China.

George, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, thus went a step further than the State Department has been willing to go, in renewing his proposal for a conference to seek a way to ease tensions in the Formosa area.

The department's official position thus far has been that American representatives would not be willing to talk with Chou unless the Nationalist were represented too.

In a new development, the United States was understood yesterday to have decided against any direct talks with Red China unless the Chinese Communists come through with more conciliatory gestures than they have made so far.

* * *

GEORGE, a chief Democratic spokesman on foreign policy, said he would be willing to waive the Nationalist representation condition, at least in exploratory discussions. In Taipei, Nationalist spokesmen have said they would not parley with the Reds.

"All rights of both parties could be reserved at any conference that could be arranged," George said. "With those rights reserved, I think it would be advantageous to have preliminary talks with the Communists to learn if it is possible to make some approach to a peaceful settlement.

"Only through a conference can we arrive at anything and I think one should be held."

Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), a Foreign Relations committeeman, took exception to George.

"I think the presence of the Nationalists at the conference table would be indispensable," he said. "We certainly wouldn't sit down at any conference to dispose of British territory unless Great Britain were there.

"We have recognized Chiang's sovereignty over Formosa by treaty. Congress has voted to use our armed forces to defend Formosa. To talk with Chou when they are absent would mean that we are abandoning them."

WHS Coach-Teacher Jim Lipinski Resigns

School Maintenance Discussed

Plans for the summer rehabilitation program for the city's schools today were beginning to take on definite form following a decision by the School Board at its Monday afternoon meeting to "do as much as time and money will permit."

That decision came, however, after the needs had been gone over one by one and the entire program outlined in considerable detail.

Major phases of the rehabilitation plans included repairing and refinishing the floors, repairing and refinishing the desks and chairs, washing the walls and ceilings, a complete inspection of locks and doors and making repairs where needed and giving all the buildings a thorough cleaning. The plan was broken down into the needs for each building.

No overall estimates of the cost were made, but the board had a pretty good idea of what it will cost. Materials for the biggest part of the program would cost $2,690. However, since the work will be done by the regular maintenance staff, plus one or two extra workers at least part of the time, figuring the labor cost is complicated.

Along this line, the board rejected two bids for re-treading the stairs at the Rose Avenue School and discussed at length plans for repairing the chimney and caping stones at Sunnyside School. Definite action of these two problems was planned for the next regular meeting.

The project of pointing up the brick walls (placing mortar between the bricks) on much of the high school building is now under way, the board was told.

The resignation of James Lipinski, junior social science teacher and assistant football coach and baseball coach, was accepted by the board. Lipinski, who had five classroom periods out of six every day in addition to his coaching duties, said he had decided to accept an offer to go to the Cuyahoga Falls High School. He had been tendered a contract for another year at WHS.

He is the second member of the coaching staff to go to Cyyahoga Falls. Bob Shaw, athletic director and head football and basketball coach, resigned about a month ago to accept a similar position with the northern Ohio school.

Selection of successors to these two coaches, both of whom had a background of college and professional sports, was discussed only casually by the board.

Payment of routine bills amounting to $5,510 was authorized by the board. Most of them were for the normal services, such as utilities. However, $428 was for 16 new typing desks that completed the modernization of this department, which now has 32 new desks along with other equipment.

Before the board adjourned after a 2½-hour session, it agreed to hold a special meeting May 2 to discuss a building program to meet the needs of the future. There just had not been time enough to go in-

Much Is Accomplished At Asia-Africa Confab

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP)—While their delegation chiefs grabbed the headlines with verbal acrobatics, delegates concerned with economic problems quietly accomplished much of the work for which the Asian-African conference was intended.

As one delegate said, none of the 29 nations at last week's Bandung meeting could afford to build a battleship or acquire atom bombs.

Communist China was expected to make something out of Uncle Sam's big brother role. But the Reds did not raise their voices once. Nobody said anything about the aid the Soviet Union sends to Peiping either.

Once past this controversial is sue, the economic committee speedily:

1. Agreed to exchange technical assistance, where one conference country could help another.

2. Recommended the establishment of a special U. N. fund for economic development.

3. Recognized the need to "stabilize commodity trade."

4. Recommended stabilizing international prices.

5. Decided small nations should process more of their own raw materials.

6. Suggested that shipping lines review their freight rates more often and adopt a more "reasonable attitude."

7. Encouraged the establishment of international and regional banks.

8. Suggested a frank exchange of information on the oil industry.

9. Urged speedy establishment of an international atomic energy agency to foster "development of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes."

10. Agreed to the appointment of liaison officers "for the exchange of information and ideas on matters of mutual interest."

11. Recommended furthering their mutual economic interests without forming a regional bloc.

Some 2½ hours after the blast the fourth body was taken out of the wrecked dynamometer room.

The Navy said the blast was caused by compressed air and fluid used in testing torpedo propulsion mechanisms.

About 20 persons were at work in the building, a cement affair about 150 feet long.

According to Wellings there may be one or two more victims in the debris.

The blast was heard plainly on Jamestown Island nine miles away.

The Navy said no identification would be made immediately.

The blast shattered one end of the building and blew off its cement roof. Twelve to 15 windows were blown out and wooden doors on the front blown off.

A dynamometer is a device for measuring the output strength of an engine. In a test, torpedo propulsion engines would be hooked up to the dynamometer and run at high speeds.

Sister-Slayer's Trial Underway

The youth was indicted for second degree murder Jan. 17.

Three judges are hearing the case after the defense waived a trial by jury. No motive for the "pillow fight" killing has been disclosed.

Counsel for Spears entered pleas of innocent and innocent by reason of insanity. Lima State Hospital Supt. R. E. Bushong said the boy was sane and responsible.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

You can find pretty nearly anything in a newspaper office if you time your visit right. I'm thinking of setting up a museum of oddities that come in here.

The other day, I found a Mason jar filled with four snakes on my desk. It turned out that they were being chaperoned by two small boys just back from a snake-hunting expedition.

The snakes were as small for snakes as the boys were for boys. Maybe smaller. I didn't measure.

Anyway, the kids had been down to Rock Bridge on a bike hike and all-day camping trip. In the afternoon, they started to toss rocks into the creek and found the tiny snakes under the rocks.

"We found one two-and-a-half footer," volunteered one of the kids. After I checked hurriedly under my desk, they told me they'd killed the big snake. "We just brought in the little ones to you," they said reassuringly.

One of the snakes was a grass snake; the other three were garter snakes. The youngsters didn't know what the big snake was.

"We didn't wait around to find out," one of them grinned.

One of the four boys, Neil Strong, has been taking care of the snakes since Saturday, when the kids caught them. Roger Swartz, Maynard Andrews and Don Wightman were the other intrepid snake-hunters.

Don and a fifth boy, Eddie Bowen, brought in the snakes. I asked Eddie how he happened to be a co-owner of the snakes and he explained it was because he had been willing to come into my office with Don.

I'm not sure, but I suspect those other three kids were afraid of me when a two-and-a-half-foot snake didn't give them a turn. Looks like I'm going to have to grow a forked tongue to avoid scaring off my public.

More Blood Donors Are Needed For Bloodmobile Visit Friday

Fayette County's blood program faces a new threat today.

With less than two days to go, just 63 prospective blood donors had signed up for the upcoming visit of the Bloodmobile to the First Presbyterian Church Friday.

The quota is 150 pints, explained Mrs. Fred Cahall of the Red Cross chapter here, but allowance has to be made for those who may not pass their medical examinations.

The Lioness Club, which is sponsoring the drive this time, has combed the city. According to Mrs. Robert Wise, a member of the Lioness Club, members have contacted every place of business in the city and have solicited friends and acquaintances by the score.

Their private goal is 180 prospective donors, to allow for donors who may be rejected for medical reasons. So at Tuesday noon, they were just over a third of the way to their goal.

The Bloodmobile's visit is slated for Friday and Mrs. Cahall explained that the list of donors must be drawn up by the day before the Bloodmobile arrives.

The Lionesses are urging anyone who can give blood to telephone a member of Lioness Club. The recruiting campaign is headed by the president, Mrs. Charles Griffiths, but any member will accept calls—"happily," according to Mrs. Wise.

The only persons who can be sure they will not be allowed to donate are those under 18 years old or over 65. Young people between 18 and 21 must secure their parents' permission.

"Some persons are not allowed to give blood because of their medical histories, but the only way to be sure that your are in this group

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ninety years ago today Grandpop Huldric became a man without a country. It never bothered him much, but it sure has worried me.

I've been thinking about the old gentleman a lot lately, but today I got to thinking real hard because in Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and Florida this is Confederate Memorial Day—and I come from Alabama.

This used to be a real sad time down home because it is the anniversary of the day Gen. Joseph E. Johnston surrendered the last Confederate army in the field—17 days after "Marse Robert" E. Lee gave up at Appomattox on April 9, 1865.

Mostly this is a time of mourning for me too, but today I've been laughing. Down by the Capitol there is a big statue of Gen. U. S. Grant, surrounded on both flanks with horses and cannon and men waving swords. This morning I noticed that some of the swords are bent.

I can just hear Grandad Huldric chuckling and saying, "That's the way they looked, son, after they fought me and yo' grand uncles Egboll and Relbue."

Anyhow, this is the day Grandpop lost his citizenship. The Yankees took it away and said he couldn't have it back until he signed up loyal.

Well, sir, Grandpop was about as unreconstructed as the Yankee army after Stonewall Jackson finished with them at First Manassas. By the time he got to be a citizen again, the Yankees had just up and decided to let bygones be bygones.

Grandpop was a member of the Lamar Rifles, 11th Mississippi, and I hear tell that as a member of the army of northern Virginia he did his durndest to upturn this government at places like Antietam and Gettysburg and in the Seven Days Battle.

They tell me that he and Gen. Jubal Early and 15,000 other fine and gallant gentlemen marched up to Washington in '64. They

Dies At Age 53

WILMINGTON (AP) — Dr. Phillip E. Henderson, 53, associate professor of business and economics at Wilmington College, died today following a stroke.

He was president of Western College for Women at Oxford, Ohio from 1945 to 1951, when he joined the Wilmington College faculty. From 1936 to 1941, he was regional director of the Farm Security Administration.

Freighters Collide

Nurses' Breakfast Is Next Saturday

Saturday morning, the smell of frying ham and eggs and steaming coffee will fill the American Legion Hall. And members of the Fayette County Nurses Association hope there will be at least 1,000 noses there to sniff the aroma.

Saturday's the day of the nurses' breakfast, held each year for the benefit of Memorial Hospital and to help some deserving girl earn her Registered Nurse degree.

Starting at 6 A. M. and lasting until 10 o'clock, the breakfast will consist of ham, eggs, coffee (all you an drink, the nurses promise) sausage, hotcakes, fruit juice, rolls, butter and jams and jellies. The cost of this big meal is just 75 cents.

Last year, 950 persons turned out for the breakfast. This year, the nurses' Association hopes to top 1,000, according to Mrs. Donald Swaim, co-chairman of the committee in charge. Mrs. Marvin Roszmann is the other commtee head.

The proceeds of the breakfast will be used for some item of major equipment needed by the hospital, depending on the amount raised and is most needed at the time.

• • •

ANOTHER use to which the money will be put is helping some Fayette County girl through her three years of nurses' training. Each year, the Nurses' Association chooses a girl who has the capability to be a nurse but lacks the financial resources. The girl is allowed to choose the hospital at which she'll train and the Association offers her assistance.

This year, the Association has another group of girls from which it might choose the recipient of the scholarship. That's the Future Nurses of America, a new organization at Washington C. H. High School.

Members of those two groups will serve the breakfast Friday morning.

Members of the Future Nurses are Edna Peters, Janice Kelley, Joy Lucas, Carolyn Leeth, Barbara Gilmore, Evelyn Grieves, Mary Fox, Carol Penwell, Thelma McFarren, Beverly Nelson, Mary Ann Carr, Charlene Engle and Marilyn Melvin;

Funeral Is Held For Mrs. Johnson

Funeral service were held at 2 P. M. Monday for Mrs. Lizzie Johnson at the Gerstner Funeral Home.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengel, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, was in charge of the service. He read Scripture from the Book of John, the Twenty Third Psalm, offered prayer, paid a personal tribute to the deceased, and closed his remarks by reading the hymn, "Abide With Me."

The beautiful flowers were cared for by the pallbearers Arthur Maddux, Laris Hard, William Eakins, John Srofe, William Feagans and Herbert Burton. Burial was in the family lot in White Oak Cemetery.

4-H Club Activities

UNION BLUE RIBBON

A lively discussion on feeding hogs brought out the fact that buttermilk can lower the farmer's cost per pound gained.

The club members discussed the constitution used last year and decided to renew it for another year. Leading the meeting was the president, Kenneth Petitt. The club advisors are Robert Agle and Marshall Frock.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite President Eisenhower's plea to Congress not to tamper with his foreign trade program—it barely squeaked through the House untouched—it's in trouble in the Senate.

That program, which Eisenhower calls a cornerstone in dealing with friendly countries, is running into what OPA encountered, during and after the war, while it was still controlling prices. Businessmen paraded before congressional committees to say what they thought of continuing OPA another year.

One after another their story went like this: "I think OPA is necessary and should be continued. But in my special case there ought to be an exception. . . ."

Eisenhower has asked Congress to continue the reciprocal trade program, already in existence 20 years, another three years. Its purpose is to increase world trade and prosperity here and among nations trading with the United States.

Briefly, it works like this: It lets the President lower tariffs on foreign goods imported here provided tho e same exporting countries agree to lower their tariffs on American goods sent to them.

This means some American industries would have to compete at home with foreign made goods. Various groups who might be affected have fought against tariff cuts on imported, competitive products.

No later than yesterday Eisenhower said that to weaken the "administration proposals by crippling amendments would strike a severe blow at the cooperative efforts of the free nations to build up their economic and military defenses. It could mean a retreat to economic nationalism and isolationism."

On Feb 18 the program passed the House by a narrow margin but unchanged. Then it moved over to the Senate, where, before it could go up to the floor for a vote, the Senate Finance Committee examined it.

"How can we turn back the clock to another day and say that the trade and commerce of the world, especially the free world, again should be circumvented and departmentalized to the point almost of the stagnation of that commerce? How can we do this and yet hope all free nations will become economically strong and prosperous?"

Also last week George, who has been a staunch Eisenhower supporter on foreign policy, sponsored in the Finance Committee an amendment tacked on to the trade program bill. It was sought by the American textile industry as protection from undue competition from imported Japanese textiles. The White House was said by some senators to have okayed that amendment.

Now the committee is trying to decide whether to approve another amendment to cut down on oil imports.

These amendments or changes in the President's program are not final unless the full Senate later approves them. It may not. But any changes are encouragement to all senators to fight for more amendments to help their own state interests.

Car, Savings Gone

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A Los Angeles carnival concession owner, Albert R. Cohn, 54, told police yesterday he locked $3,000 for safe keeping in the trunk of his car, parked across the street from county jail. The auto was stolen early yesterday.

Teacher Meeting Here on Friday

State Legislator Is To Be Speaker

William J. Manahan of Defiance, chairman of the education committee of the Ohio House of Representatives, will address the City-County Teachers Association Friday.

At the joint luncheon meeting at the Country Club at 1 P. M., he will report on the findings of the Ohio School Survey Committee—of which he is also chairman—and pending legislation.

City and county schools will be dismissed at noon Friday. All teachers are expected to attend.

Members of the nomination committee to select new officer candidates are Chairman Hugh Rea, principal of Rose Avenue School, Mary Theresa Craig of Bloomingburg School and Conner Merritt, Eber principal.

Offices to be filled are president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and a three-year executive committee post. Present officers are Harry Phillips, president; Mrs. Mary Gillespie, vice-president; and Mrs. Gilbert Biddle secretary-treasurer.

Members of the executive committee are Frank Creamer, Mrs. Helen Pope and the member whose term expires, Miss Jane Trent.

U. S. Photos, Gears Seen In Peiping

TOKYO (AP)—A recent Japanese visitor to Red China told today of seeing 10 or 15 captured Americans' photographs and hundreds of U.S. parachutes and airmens' uniforms in Peiping.

Shozo Murata, who conducted unofficial trade talks in Red China in January, said he could not be sure whether the Americans pictured were the airmen and civilians held on what the United States has called "trumped - up charges" of espionage. Nor could he tell whether the equipment might have been captured in North Korea.

C of C Voting Deadline Not Until May 28

The deadline for voting in the "primary by mail" to select the candidates for directors of the Chamber of Commerce is further away than was thought at first.

Through some unexplainable confusion in dates, a whole month was lost; Members of the Chamber have until May 28, not just April 28, to get their ballots in.

Glen Allen, the Chamber manager was not disturbed over the mix-up in dates; he said the announcement that the deadline was April 28, instead of May 28, might spur the members into getting their selections for director nominees in sooner.

Under the new plan of electing directors of the Chamber, a ballot listing all of the resident members' names is sent to every member. Each member is to mark ten of the names for candidates for the board of directors, five of whom are to be elected at another similar "election by mail" between May 28 and June 13 when the results will be announced at the annual meeting.

Allen said about 100 of the primary ballots had been returned. He commented that these all came in within a week or so after they were sent out but that not many had come in since then. For this reason, he said, the mix-up in the primary voting deadline might bring in more ballots.

Pottery Workers Get Wage Boost

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP) — A new wage increase granted 28,000 pottery industry employes throughout the nation will cost management up to $500,000 a year.

The agreement was reached in negotiations held in New York between the AFL Brotherhood of Operative Potters and the U.S. Potters Assn. It was the first increase granted pottery workers since December 1952. The new pact increases the pay of minimum-rated men employes five cents to $1.42 hourly; the pay of minimum-rated women employes five cents to $1.20½. The increase hits a third of the 28,000 employes, with the other two-thirds receiving no raise.

Purdue Offers Soybean Data

How Profits May Be Greatly Increased

Good stands and high yields of soybeans can mean extra profits for Corn Belt farmers since soybeans have forged to the top as a cash crop in many states, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

The commitee lists these suggestions by Purdue University for getting good profits from soybeans:

(1) Use high quality inoculated seed and plant on a well prepared seed bed.

(2) Have your soils limed.

(3) Use 100 pounds of starter fertilizer to get the beans started ahead of the weeds and provide sufficient additional nutrients to carry the crop through to maturity.

(4) Use weed control before and after planting.

"Controlling weeds and supplying sufficient nutrients are particularly important," says a statement issued by the committee. "Well fed soybeans get the jump on weeds. Then during the growing season it is important to control as much as possible weeds in and between the rows."

Having enough potash is particularly essential the committee says. A shortage of potash is reflected in reduced yields, shriveled beans and poor quality. The crop not only loses weight, but the beans you do market will bring a lower price because of lower quality.

Fliers Wreck More Autos Than Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has expressed "serious concern" about auto accidents.

In a report to a House Appropriations subcommittee, the Air Force said its men have about five times as many auto accidents as airplane accidents.

In 1954 there were 757 fatalities from airplane accidents and 608 from auto crashes. But 5,324 GIs were injured in auto accidents, compared with 529 in planes.

Altogether there were 6,460 auto accidents, 1,326 airplane crashes.

ATTEND THE NURSES MAY DAY BREAKFAST SATURDAY American Legion Hall

CRAIG'S

May Day Breakfast On Saturday, April 30

The always popular May Day Breakfast, sponsored by the Fayette County Professional Nurses Association, will this year be held from 6 A. M. till 10 A. M. on Saturday, April 30 because May 1 falls on Sunday. The place will be the American Legion Hall on North Fayette Street.

This always has been accorded fine patronage in this community, not only because the nurses' organization is a popular one in the public mind, but also because the money made on this breakfast goes for a worthwhile purpose. The proceeds are used largely to help finance the nursing education of girls who sincerly desire to enter this respected profession.

Nearly every year a part of the proceeds are used in providing some new piece of needed equipment at the Fayette County Memorial Hospital. Also another fine gesture made this year was a contribution to the county health department to help defray some of the extra expense involved in the polio drive and in connection with the plans for free polio Salk vaccine shots to be given school children.

A new feature of the May Day Breakfast this year will be the appearance of members of the Future Nurses of America organization in the high school. This group of girls with ambition to enter the profession of nursing, will assist the Pinafore Girls now in training at the local hospital who are interested in professional hospital positions, in serving the breakfast. As usual all will be aided substantially by members of the American Legion Auxiliary who have helped every year in the preparation of the food.

The tremendous demand for professional nurses and other capable nursing personnel is nation-wide. The efforts to increase the number entering this profession is being pressed by all who know what the shortage of nurses mean in nearly every locality.

For this reason anything the public can do to stimulate this interest and to help with funds to provide more nurses, is a worthwhile move for the public good.

Also, those who have attended these May Day Breakfasts here realize that they get more than their money's worth in the very appetizing meal which always has featured this annual event here, so it is up to all of us to be liberal in our patronage.

No. 1 Dog Lover Is Dogless

By M. Goldsmith
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

If you spurn tradition and shave off all his hair except for "cuffs" on his legs, a tuft on his tail and a "corset" round the middle, then both you and your dog are suspect in the eyes of Fritz Ruef, recently elected president of the International Cynological Federation.

Cyno comes from the Greek for dog, and Ruef probably knows more about the etiquette and society gossip of the dog world than anyone else alive.

Differences over such important matters as a poodle's haircut have led to a great schism among the world's dog lovers, and Ruef is the undisputed leader of the traditionalists.

There can be no argument about a poodle's hair, according to Ruef. "To be a poodle," he says, "a poodle must have lots of hair in front and a crew cut behind. This standard was fixed long ago by the Paris Poodle Club and accepted as binding by all self-respecting owners. It is obvious that a poodle owner who insists on dressing up his dog like a clown cannot claim equal rights in an association such as ours."

One of the main causes of the schism among the world's dog lovers was a dispute over the social register of boxers—the four-legged variety. Traditionally, a boxer's litter is limited to four puppies, and any puppies born after the fourth are destroyed to preserve the quality of the breed.

Unfortunately, Ruef said, base profit motives led to a refusal by certain "fraudulent elements" to kill off the excess puppies. "They even wanted us to enroll this illegal offspring in our official register," Mr. Ruef exclaimed with indignation. "When we naturally refused, all those who were violating the rules became dissatisfied, and that is how the trouble started."

For a time, the split remained limited to Switzerland, but the rebels soon organized themselves in other countries and Ruef's International Cynological Federation is now at war with the rebel International Cynological Union in most countries of the eastern hemisphere. Only the United States, Russia and some relatively dogless countries are not yet involved.

Recognized "federation" dogs, says Ruef, are a distinct social cut above the upstart "union" dogs, not to mention the untouchable class of dogs who don't belong to any organization. "Federation" dogs are rigorously forbidden to have any social contacts with "union" or unorganized dogs. Mis-alliances do occur, Ruef admitted, but the offspring doesn't have a dog's chance of inclusion in any social register recognized by the federation.

In Switzerland alone, the dogs' social register, Hundstammbuch lists more than 53,000 blue-blooded dogs born since 1900. The annual supplements to the register are handsomely printed by the printing works Ruef runs in Langenthal.

The federation is recognized as the ruling body of the dog world by dog lovers' associations in nearly every non-Communist country of the eastern hemisphere. American dogs have a separate organization.

Asked whether this meant that American or Russian dogs are not allowed to associate with European dogs, Ruef said: "Such unions are very uncommon. I cannot remember that such a case was ever inscribed on our register, but, of course, there may have been liaisons of which we were not informed."

But his career contains a hidden tragedy. He does not have a single dog of his own.

"As a young man, I bred Irish terriers and dachshunds," he said. "But now I have to devote every spare minute to my organizational work, and have no time left for dogs of my own."

The Definition Of A Reactionary

By George Sokolsky

A person is called a reactionary who moves within the traditions of American life and history. The definition is my own but the facts behind it are demonstrable. I take the following from a statement made by Louis Hollander, President of the New York CIO, who said:

"I believe we can force the reactionaries of both old parties to form their own third party. Then labor can sit down and rebuild one of the two remaining parties, supporting the liberals who stay on."

Hollander happened to say this because someone else, at the particular meeting he was addressing, had suggested that labor form its own party which would seem to be the logical and honest way of going about it if anyone desired a third party.

Under the tutelage of the ADA, however, some labor leaders, socialists, ancient New Dealers and forensic Republicans have concluded that the best way to walk off with another man's possessions is to go into his home and take over. Why bother to form a third party when it is possible by infiltration to steal both the Republican and Democratic parties?

The question then arises as to whether it can be done. In New York State, the ADA has more or less been pushed out of the Democratic party. Neither Governor Averell Harriman nor Carmine Desapio, who runs Democratic policies, will have anything to do with this amalgam of people on the left. On the other hand, the Republican party in this great state is not so resistant to the ADA because being out of power is very unpleasant after so long a period in office and maybe with a little assistance the Republicans can get somewhere.

Besides, the only Republican elected last year, the Attorney-General, Jacob Javits, is on the untraditional side and nobody will call him a reactionary, no matter what else he might call him. In fact, if Hollander's friends manage to infiltrate and capture the Republican party in New York, it would not be necessary for Javits to leave it, no matter what unseemly company he would be forced to keep.

Actually none of this is likely to happen on a national scale in the near future but it does indicate a manner of mind. The ADA has sought to be a balance of power among the Democrats and has only failed because of a Southern repugnance for Socialists which may be overcome, in due course, as the industrialization of the South proceeds.

Among the Republicans, these days, the only fixed principle is that President Eisenhower is a great and popular man who cannot be defeated in 1956. Apart from that, the party in power, as it were, views life and events pragmatically, hoping that more credits will be gained than minuses and that in due course everything will work out well enough, although in these muddled times no one can look forward to perfection. Republicans generally accept it as inviolable truth that Eisenhower cannot be defeated in 1956 no matter who runs against him and that no other Republican can be elected.

The theft of a political party by infiltration, two of them, as Hollander advocates, is only possible because of the debasement of public morals. In Hollander's circles, it would be called "khutzpa," which may be defined as aggressive devil-may-care impudence and sometimes even imprudence. And it is even possible that to one who can be guilty of "khutzpa" go the spoils because other men, less forward, shun the battle and give the field.

If political parties were membership organizations in the United States, as they are in Great Britain, capture of the party by infiltration would not be so likely and probably impossible. In Great Britain it is not within reason to conceive of a group of men banding together to capture both the Conservative and Labour parties and offering Sir Anthony Eden and Clement Attlee the choice of organizing a third party. If nothing else, public morals would be outraged by such a thought.

Yet in the United States not only is the ADA seeking to do exactly that but Mr. Hollander boasts of it and offers it as a program. And the reason that anyone dares do it is that both parties have become mostly vehicles for election, not agencies for the struggle over public principle.

Help In Emergency For Accident Victims

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Quick and proper emergency treatment at the scene of an auto accident might mean the difference between life and death. You don't have to be a doctor to give first aid to a seriously injured motorist. A physician should be called, of course. But in the meantime you should be able to help out.

Stopping Heavy Bleeding

I told you yesterday what to do to revive an unconscious person and what to do for shock. It's even more important to know how to stop serious bleeding. The loss of even a quart of blood might be fatal.

Now unless you are well trained in first aid, I know you aren't going to remember the various pressure points about the body of blood.

However, there are a couple of things you should remember. Blood from the veins is bluish red in color and flows steadily. Blood from a cut artery comes in spurts and is bright red.

To control bleeding from an injure arm or leg resulting from a severed artery, apply pressure on the side of the limb toward the heart. For bleeding from a vein apply pressure on the side away from the heart.

Applying a Tourniquet

Probably the best means of applying this pressure is with a tourniquet. In an emergency, you can make a tourniquet from a handkerchief or even a necktie. Fold these so they form a flat band about an inch wide or maybe a little wider. Knot this tourniquet about the injured limb. Then insert a stick between the knot and twist to apply pressure.

Now you've got to be very careful. Use only enough pressure to stop the bleeding. Every ten or fifteen minutes, if it takes that long for a doctor to arrive, release the pressure for a minute or two. Never use a rope or cord as a tourniquet. This might do more harm than good.

One more thing. If you aren't sure what you should do, it's best to do nothing. But be prepared to give the doctor whatever assistance he might need.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Mrs. P. J.: I have a continual rolling of gas in my stomach and always belch gas—which is very embarrassing. Could you tell me what I should do?

Answer: The formation of large amounts of gas in the bowel may be due to a number of causes, one of the most common being gall-bladder infection. Eating foods which contain too much starch and sweets might result in the formation of a great deal of gas. An examination should be made to determine the cause; then it can be eliminated. Individuals who eat too fast, or who are nervous, frequently swallow a great deal of air with their food. This air accumulates and pressure results. One should eat slowly and food should be chewed at all times.

Newest model in Mercury's Montclair Series lets you enjoy "hardtop" beauty with 4-door convenience

It's the newest Mercury of them all—the Montclair 4-door Sedan, and the photograph shows you that not one bit of the original Montclair hardtop beauty has been lost. It has the same dramatic lowness—only 58¾ inches from road to roof.

And see how convenient it is to get in and out. Everyone who admires hardtop styling, but wants the roominess and convenience of a 4-door model, can now eat his cake, and have it too!

198-hp Super-Torque V-8 with dual exhausts

Seldom has an engine caused as much enthusiastic comment from auto editors. And once you drive a Montclair, you'll see why. It gives you instant, on-the-spot pickup at every speed—from zero to super-highway limits. A four-barrel carburetor, unique new high-compression spark plugs, and dual exhausts are yours at no extra cost. Features like these are usually extra on medium-priced cars.

The Mercury Montclair offers a new optional power feature—power lubrication. And it's exclusive with Mercury in the medium-price field. You push a button on the dashboard and vital parts of your car are automatically lubricated. You can also choose optional power steering, power windows, power brakes, 4-way power seat and Merc-O-Matic Drive.

Why not come in and see this newest Mercury? It costs a lot less than you think. And right now your present car is worth a lot more than you might think on a trade-in at your Mercury dealer's.

Places Needed for 132 To Stay While Here for Band Festival

Places are needed for 18 girls and 114 boys to sleep in Washington C. H. or nearby farms the night of May 13.

They will be among the 370 who are coming here for the high school Band Festival.

The committee of parents of members of the Washington C. H. High School Band has arranged for places for the other 248 to spend the night—232 of them in the homes of members of the WHS Band, Mrs. C. E. Rhoad, who is co-chairman of the committee with Mrs. Albert Bryant, said.

The 80-piece band from Lancaster, the 103-piece band from Newark, the 92-piece band from Springfield and 99-piece band from Mansfield will start coming into Washington C. H. on the morning of May 13, but they will be too busy to spend much time with their hosts for that night.

There will be a practice in the afternoon, a dinner in the evening and then the big concert on the football field at Gardner Park that night.

After the concert, there is to be what is described as a military ball (because the band members will all be in uniform) in the high school gym that will last until about midnight.

So, the youngsters will not be able to get to bed at the homes of their hosts for the night until after midnight. Not all of the boys and girls will go to the dance, but most of them will—at least that is the way it has been in the other cities where the Festival has been held. Last year it was in Springfield and the year before that in Newark.

* * *

THEIR HOSTS will be expected to serve them breakfast Saturday morning, but that will be over by about 8 o'clock because the bands are to assemble for the big parade through the heart of the city to climax the festival at 9 o'clock.

After the parade, the bands will be "on their own." Most of them are expected to head for home almost immediately after the parade breaks up, but others are expected to remain for at least a part of the afternoon.

While there will be 370 teenagers here with the four visiting bands, they will not be nearly all of the visitors here for the two days. That, too, has been the experience in other cities where the festival has been held previously.

Many parents and friends of the band members are expected to come here Friday afternoon and remain over night, but others will be returning to their homes.

However, the committee is making no attempt to provide accommodation for the adults—unless it would be a tip to the restaurants to prepared.

Mrs. Rhoad said the committee was very anxious to get all the overnight accommodations lined up as soon as possible and said it hoped volunteers would call either her (45774) or Mrs. Bryant (48628) and let them know how many young people they can have as their guests Friday night and for breakfast Saturday morning.

MYF Group At Conference

Methodist Youth Fellowship groups of the Washington Circuit today were still talking about the experiences they had during the week end they spent at the youth conference at Cleveland Bible College.

Children's Specialist To Head Heart Clinic

Dr. Robert Lyon will be here Friday to conduct a heart clinic at the County Health Department. He is a member of the Pediatrics Department of Cincinnati General Hospital.

The clinic — from 10 A. M. to 2:30 P. M. — is sponsored by the Department of Public Welfare, Division of Crippled Children's Services. Dr. Lyon is also medical director of the Cincinnati Children's Heart Association.

It will be the eighth annual clinic here and is limited to Fayette County children up to 15 years of age who are sent by their family physicians for examination. It gives the children benefit of specialized examination, including electro-cardiogram, by Dr. Lyon and his skilled staff.

Reports of the findings are to be sent directly to the child's attending physicians by the examiner. Approximately 23 children will be examined.

...and insure electrical convenience in your home!

Why build an inconvenient house? The Adequate Wiring Bureau will lay out wiring plans on the blue prints of your new home in the planning stage, applying all the national Adequate Wiring standards: locating switches conveniently, placing receptacles and light outlets, designating which outlets the switches control; denoting size of service wires, number of circuits and kinds of circuits —whether lighting, general appliance or special appliance.

There is no charge of any kind for this service. Two free inspections of the new building are made. First, when rough wiring is in; second, final inspection of the finished wiring.

If the wiring job meets the national standards for safety, convenience and adequate service, an Adequate Wiring Certificate is awarded. Also, an Adequate Wiring sticker is placed on the meter panel board containing the contractor's name and a poster "This house meets Adequate Wiring Standards" is erected to proclaim the fact during the remainder of construction.

FREE Advice on Bringing Old Wiring Up-to-date

Modernizing the wiring of a house that was built years ago is not always a big job. Sometimes one additional circuit relieves danger of overload. Finding out costs nothing. Adequate Wiring Bureau advice is free. This Company cooperates in this activity because we consider it part of our service to help customers obtain the utmost possible benefit from the use of electricity.

Martha Washington DAR Members Elect Officers At Regular Meeting

Members of the Martha Washington Committee of DAR assembled at the home of Mrs. Ray French on the Circleville Road, for the regular April meeting. Her assisting hostesses were Mrs. J. H. McWilliams and Mrs. John Leland and fifteen members were present.

Mrs. John D. Forsythe gave a most interesting report on the National convention of DAR held recently in Washington D. C.

Mrs. Willard Bitzer, chairman, conducted the business session which included a report on the progress in work which is being done to restore the old cemetery in this city.

Mrs. Ronald Cornwell reported that seven members had met at the cemetery a few days ago and cleared away debris which had accumulated through the year which was removed by the city crew of workman.

She also told the members that poisonous weeds had been destroyed and plans have been made to meet Saturday, April 30 to continue work on the project which will include the building of a brick wall around a family lot, transplanting lilacs along the fence adjoining the railroad tracks and repairing damaged tombstones which are among the things that call for immediate attention.

Mrs. Forsythe also reported on the New Miami Trace Chapter made up of Children of the Committee which is in charge of Mrs. Richard Rankin, who was absent. Installation of this chapter is being planned for Saturday, May 7 at 2 P. M. in the basement of First Presbyterian Church and mothers of the children will be special guests.

The members also made plans to visit the William Harrison Home in Springfield, which will take the place of the May meeting and Mrs. Dwight Duff was appointed to make arrangements for the tour. Those wishing to make the trip are to contact Mrs. Duff before May 20.

The nominating committee, presented the names of members who were chosen to serve for the coming year, who are as follows: Mrs. Willard Bitzer, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Christopher, vice chairman; Mrs. Dean Powell, secretary and Mrs. Robert Green, treasurer.

The program for the evening was built around the subject "Conservation," which is of vital interest to this organization and included the showing of the film, "The Years To Come" sponsored by the United States Department of Agriculture and secured through the courtesy of the local conservation office.

Ohio's Youths Proposing Tougher Laws On Motoring

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The laws governing Ohio motorists would be tougher today if measures passed by the model Legislature which took over the Statehouse last weekend had been for keeps.

There would be a heavier penalty on a driver leaving the scne of an accident.

The minimum age for getting a license would be higher.

Altogether, 26 bills or resolutions pertaining to the operation of motor vehicles were drawn up by the more than 400 teenage legislators taking part in the annual Youth and Government Program of the Ohio Young Men's Christian Assn.

The model Legislature produced 103 bills, and "Governor" Joe Sheridan of Fairborn approved 22 of them. The legislators overrode the governor's veto of a 23rd bill, passing into "law" a measure to establish a state board of education.

One measure pertaining to motoring—killed in committee—would have banned road signs which rhymed.

The youthful legislators tried unsuccessfully to establish daylight savings time throughout the state, to create a state institution for alcoholics, to require installation of cafeterias in all public schools and to prohibit sale of "realistic" toy firearms.

The high school students, representing Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y clubs throughout the state, wound up the final session of the fourth model Legislature yesterday. The real Ohio Legislature was in weekend recess.

4 Ohio Professors Get Fellowships

COLUMBUS (AP) — The Guggenheim Foundation announced yesterday four Ohio teachers have been selected to receive research fellowships.

The four are Dr. Marshall Hall Jr., professor of mathematics at Ohio State University; Dr. Francis D. Williams, OSU professor of physics; Walter E. Aschaffenburg, music instructor at Oberlin Conservatory of Music, and Dr. John F. Cady, professor of history at Ohio University.

Trees Donated As Memorial

CLEVELAND (AP)—Yesterday, in the rain, Michael M. Montagano took 12 flowering crabapple trees to residents of a South Euclid street for planting as a memorial to his only son, Capt. Edmund D. Montagano, who crashed to death in his fighter plane 10 years ago.

The street along which the trees will grow is named after the captain—Montagano Boulevard. The flier survived 52 Pacific bombing missions and met death in his native Ohio.

Is This World A Fat Man's Paradise?

Not if you can believe insurance statistics which claim that overweight causes more deaths than cancer. Reliable authorities hold that obesity is responsible for more disability and sickness than any other physical condition. If you are troubled with excess weight read this letter from L. E. Armstrong, 2717 Ralph Ave., Cleveland 9, Ohio who writes: "I had been troubled with a bad heart, and my doctor advised that I lose weight. With the help of Rennel Concentrate I was able to decrease my weight from 224 lbs. to 169 lbs. I would like to tell everyone who is overweight the good that Rennel has done for me."

Thousands of others have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves — if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Insist on and be sure to get Rennel.

Business Boom Seen Likely To Hold Up

U. S. Economic Experts Cite Change In Federal Policy For Optimism

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The business boom looks healthier now to Washington and more likely to last for some time.

That's how many businessmen assess recent actions and policy disclosures. These include the U. S. Treaury's borrowing methods—it shortly will seek two billion dollars or more in "new money"—and the Federal Reserve Board's methods of putting gentle curbs on speculation and letting interest rates rise.

Only two months ago, Washington, along with many in the business world, appeared to doubt that the business upturn would survive the hot weather season. Everyone appeared to be playing it cagey—counting on good times until July, but not making any firm plans for fall.

Chief fears were that the auto building race would grind to a halt by summer and that the home building spree would peter out then too.

But consumers are putting up cash or credit and taking the cars as they roll off the assembly lines and the homes as the builders complete them.

With the public slowly increasing its purchasing power, and the cost of living holding pleasantly steady, good times now appear to have firmer foundations than formerly thought.

The Treasury is expected to announce shortly its plans to raise six billion or more dollars. Four billion of that will be to refinance one year certificates coming due, and the rest for new funds the Treasury will need before the end of th fiscal year, June 30.

Businessmen feel that the way the Treasury raises the new cash will give a tip-off on conditions in the money market itself and on how Washington views the economy in general.

In February, Washington felt the economy strong enough to take a long-term issue and floated a 40-year three per cent bond. Such a bond tends to sop up investment money and might turn a shaky economy downward. But the business and financial markets took the bond issue in stride.

Bankers aren't expecting another long-term bond so soon. They consider a medium-term issue more likely. This belief is based on the guess that Washington considers the economy neither in the need of the lift which more one-year certificate might give or in the danger of runaway inflation which would call for a sopping up of excess funds.

The Federal Reserve has been following a similar middle-of-the-road course, aimed at striking a healthy balance—encouraging business expansion while curbing the tendency to speculation.

It has deemed the economy healthy enough to stop priming it with new credit, and thus let money tighten up a little of its own accord. When interest rates rose, the board followed along by raising the discount rate—that is, what it charges member banks for loans. The board stresses that at the same time it has taken care to see that there is plenty of money available to keep business operating and expanding.

In the stock market, where the froth of speculation first appears on any business boom, the Federal Reserve has twice hiked the margin requirements by 10 points each. As a result, stock traders now must put up at least 70 per cent in cash. This could take some of the joy out of the "public's" urge to dabble in stocks.

But in all these moves from Washington, businessmen note, there is a significant mildness.

The economy isn't being primed, but neithr is it bing drastically rstricted. Speculation is being dampened, but healthy expansion is being encouraged.

"BOOKS AND CROOKS" is the title of the lively comedy these members of Bloomingburg senior class will present Friday night on the stage of the high school auditorium. The plot concerns the misadventures of a pair of bank robbers who choose a high school as their hideout. One of the crooks is a ringer for the principal of the school-- so the collision between books and crooks turns complicated. Members of the cast are (front row, left to right) Geraldine Harris, Barbara Kimball, Joan Smith, and Katherine Robinson; (back row, left to right) Don Anderson, Raymond Mickle, Tom McCoy, Jack Biddle and Orlyn Van Dyne. Not shown are Martha Welsh and Eddie MacFadden. The director is William Baughin of the high school faculty. Curtain time is 8 P. M. Friday.

Lausche Lauds Spunk Showed By Newsboy

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has commended a Toledo newsboy for his display of business experience gained on his paper route.

But the governor said he wasn't sure whether 12-year-old James Sampsell had a claim against the state for loss of part of his route because a highway project cost him 17 customers.

James wrote the governor that he paid 45 cents each for the 17 customers and felt that the state should reimburse him to the tune of $7.65 for their loss.

"You had to give my customers money to move," James wrote, "so why don't you see if the state will pay me for the money I have lost from the new road."

The newsboy did not identify the road.

Lausche replied that others suffered losses because of highway work but that he was particularly sympathetic to the newsboy's problem. The governor said he had referred the matter to State Highway Director S. O. Linzell for study.

Firm U. S. Policy On Isles Urged

COLUMBUS (AP)—Seaborn P. Collins, American legion commander, says the United States should take a firm stand on the defense of Quemoy and Matsu islands off the coast of Red China.

Speaking at the eleventh annual convention of the Ohio State Highway Patrol Auxiliary, composed of Legion members, the national commander said a firm stand by this country would prevent loss of "prestige and two vital stepping stones to Formosa."

Crime Rate Up Another 5 Pct. In '54

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. crime rate took another 5 per cent jump in 1954, with major offenses estimated at 2,267,250, FBI director J. Edgar Hoover reports.

Hoover noted that last year was the seventh consecutive year in which the crime rate rose, and the third straight year in which more than two million serious offenses occurred.

The statistics, published in the FBI's annual Uniform Crime Reports, showed that while the nation's population grew by 7 per cent since 1950, the crime rate was increasing by 26.7 per cent during the same period.

The 1954 figures were based on data supplied to the FBI by 5,787 law enforcement agencies covering 90 per cent of the population.

These reported indicated that for every day in 1954, an estimated 34 persons were feloniously slain and 256 other felonious assaults were committed; 49 rapes occurred; 3,674 larcenies were committed; 592 cars were stolen; and there were 185 robberies and 1,422 burglaries.

The rise in the crime rate last year was largely due to increases in robbery (6-8 per cent), burglary (8.4 per cent), larceny, 5.8 pct.

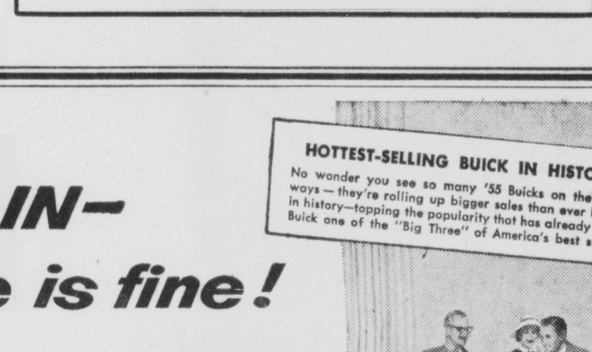

Murders dropped off 4.3 per cent in both city and rural areas and auto thefts declined 4.7 per cent. Rapes showed a 0.7 per cent increase and aggravated assaults rose 1 per cent.

HOTTEST-SELLING BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster.....$81.70 Radio & Antenna.....$92.50

UNLESS we miss our guess, a lot of surprised people are going to do some new back-of-an-envelope arithmetic when they see the Buick price shown here.

Because we know that many folks still don't realize how little a Buick really costs—that the dollar difference between this big Buick SPECIAL and the leading smaller cars has virtually disappeared.

Buick Sales Are Soaring As Never Before

But more and more of them are finding it out. And that's a major reason why Buick production and Buick sales are soaring to all-time highs today—and why Buick again is outselling all other cars, regardless of price range, except two of the well-known smaller cars.

Big reason, too, for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of automobiles, giving you a choice in any price class—the rock-bottom-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the supremely spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But above all, more and more people are discovering that the price you pay for a Buick buys more sheer automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

For here you get Variable Pitch Dynaflow†—the new wonder drive born of modern aeronautics to give you instant full-power getaway and acceleration when needed—and far better gas mileage when cruising.

Why not come see us this week, for sure? We'll be happy to have you test-pilot a new Buick, just for the sheer thrill of it—and show you quite clearly that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Great alarm already is being voiced in some quarters over the drastic dropoff in big league attendance. It has, indeed, been a disturbing feature of the new season. But note that there have been no howls of anguish to speak of from the club owners, the men who should be most concerned.

The truth is that, through the golden harvest from television and radio, the majors year after year are approaching closer to semi-independence of the fan who only a short time ago supported them totally by the dollars he left at the turnstile. The fan still is picking up the tab, all right, but he's doing it at the drugstore counter and in the corner delicatessen.

A live audience of only 3,874 showed up at Ebbets Field on a recent day to watch Robin Roberts, the game's greatest pitcher, try to stop the Brooklyn Dodgers short of a record 10 straight opening victories. On the same day, a bare 2,932 paid their way into Yankee Stadium across the river.

The Brooklyn players were audibly disturbed and predicted that if things didn't pick up in a hurry it would be necessary to move the club to Los Angeles, or somewhere. President Walter O'Malley only smiled and muttered platitudes about the weather being bad and the season young. He obviously wasn't worried at all.

And he needn't have been from what we were told by the boss man of another big league club about a month ago. He said that his team—no pennant winner—would have a guaranteed income of something over $800,000 before the season opened, and he estimated that several others would exceed that figure, possibly reaching the million mark.

That is better, he pointed out, than an added million in attendance, for it is pure velvet and there is no accounting to visiting clubs, who cut in for 20-plus per cent of the gate receipts. The Saturday Game of the Week, which goes into and damages only minor league territory, has added an important sum to the big league pool for the past two seasons.

Louisville Gains In AA Standings

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Louisville moved up another notch in the standings last night to support its ranking as pre-season favorite in the American Association.

The combination of Toledo's 6-5 verdict over St. Paul and Louisville's 24-5 rout of Denver left the Sox atop the heap with a 7-3 record, put Louisville second by one game and slipped the Saints a notch to third.

Rocky, Lulu Win Matches Aired By TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Castellani and Lulu Perez, the victors in the two network television fights last night, today were looking forward to May fights while their victims began involuntary layoffs because of nasty cuts.

Castellani, the third - ranking middleweight contender from Cleveland, staggered Cuba's Chico Varona several times to win a 10-round decision at St. Nicholas Arena. Varona, outweighed 159¼ to 156¾, required 10 stithes to patch up a cut over his left eye.

A 5-1 favorite, Castellani won by 8-2 round scores from each of the three officials.

Rocky is expected to sign for a May 23 show at the same arena against either Milo Savage of Salt Lake City, or Paul Pender, of Boston. It was the 27-year-old ex-Marine's third straight victory.

A 6-5 underdog, Perez, of Brooklyn, won by unanimous decision. Garcia was gashed in two places. A cut over his left eye, inflicted in the second round, required six stitches. A deep wound high on his forehead, suffered in a head collision in the last round, needed 10 stitches.

Carter, Smith To Clash Again

It will be their second meeting. Carter outpointed Smith in Cincinnati March 28, 1950.

Carter broke into the money when he won the crown by stopping Ike Williams in the 14th round. Since then, the New Yorker has been cashing in. This will be his 11th title fight.

Smith, National AAU champion in 1948, hopes this will be his turning point. The broad-shouldered Negro has had only 47 fights in more than six years of pro battling for a 31-33-5 record.

West Teams To Get Look At Easterners

First Real Test Of Power Coming Up In Major Leagues

The Associated Press

Now comes the first test of power in the American and National League pennant races.

Milwaukee and St. Louis get a first-hand look at all this early nonsense by Brooklyn in the National. And the New York Yankees see what's new with the Chicago White Sox and Cleveland.

The first East-West meetings of the season open today and tonight, but only the Yanks and White Sox get right down to business. They play a day game at Comiskey Park. The rest of the AL schedule sends Washington into Cleveland, a point of no return for the Senators, and Baltimore to Detroit this afternoon with Boston at Kansas City tonight.

In the National, Milwaukee and St. Louis get around to Brooklyn in a few days. Tonight, the Braves are at the Polo Grounds against the New York Giants and the Cards are at Philadelphia. Cincinnati is at Brooklyn and Chicago at Pittsburgh in another night pair.

Milwaukee comes East with Bobby Thomson in fine shape, its pitching as good as expected and only 2½ games behind the Brooks despite the Dodgers' 11-2 mark.

Manager Leo Durocher, still 5½ games off the pace, figures his lads are "all straightened out" now. He'll go with either Ruben Gomez (0-1) or Johnny Antonelli (0-2). Bob Buhl (1-0) goes for Milwaukee.

Cleveland, with pitching trouble for a change and winning but one of the last four, tries to fatten up on Washington. The Senators haven't won in Cleveland since Aug. 25, 1953, when they beat Bob Lemon. It's Lemon (3-0) they'll face today with Maury McDermott (1-1) hoping to snap Washington's 12-game losing streak at Municipal Stadium.

Now that Boston's Willard Nixon has beaten the Yanks six straight, the AL figures to revise its "southpaw-the-Bombers" idea. Chicago starts the switch to right-handers with Mike Fornieles (2-0) today vs. Bob Turley (2-0). A victory would send New York into first ahead of the White Sox, who start the game 31 percentage points to the good.

Boston also could climb into the lead with New York if Tom Brewer (0-2) stops the A's. Kansas City goes with Arnie Portocarrero (0-3).

WHS Golfers Lose To Team From Chilli

Washington C. H. High School Golf Coach Bill McCullough described Chillicothe High's golfers as "tremendous" after watching the Washington C. H. boys take a 12-1 shellacking Monday afternoon.

"They're the best team we've faced," he said. "Their scores were all the more remarkable because moisture made the fairways and greens at the Country Club here very slow."

All four boys from the Ross County school broke 90 and only one failed to break 85. Only two Lions scored under 90.

Jim Erwin led the victors with an 81 worth three points. Two of his mates had 84s and another carded an 89 for four points apiece.

Fred Cahall of Washington C. H. garnered his team's lone point with an 84. He was followed by Roger McClean with an 89; Dick Dawson, 97; and Fred Belles, 112. The latter three failed to pick up points.

The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Browns on Sept. 26, 1926 played a double header in two hours and seven minutes.

Hartack Points For Jock Mark

The 23-year-old native of Johnstown, Pa., came within one of the national single-day saddle record of seven, set by Jimmy Sylvester at Ravenna Park Oct. 18, 1930. But more important to Hartack, he gained some ground on Willie Shoemaker, the nation's leading winner.

Blue Grass Winner Eyed As Derby Star

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Nobody around Keenland is ready to argue the question that Nashua is the horse to beat in the Kentudky Derby—not yet.

Come Thursday's 30th running of the Blue Grass Stakes, however, and they might suggest that some fellow like Flying Fury or Make Ready will have a say in who gets the wreath of roses May 7 at Churchill Downs in Louisville.

The $25,000 added Blue Grass, a 1⅛ mile test just ⅛ of a mile short of the Derby distance, has produced a few derby favorites. But the last time its winner went onto take the derby was in 1942, when Shut Out did the trick.

Racing Panel Decision Eyed

COLUMBUS (AP) — Racing commission Chairman Zoltan Gombos today was undecided whether to appeal a court decision that erased the suspension of Henry Green. Both men are Clevelanders.

Common Pleas Judge Byron Gessaman of Franklin County yesterday upset the commission's suspension of Green, who was barred last Oct. 13 from Ohio tracks.

Green, who has interests in several Ohio race tracks, was accused of interfering with a commission inspector last Sept. 20 at the Hamilton track. Green was charged with refusing to let the inspector into the money room.

Early Wynn Gets Nod To Take Mound

CLEVELAND (AP) — Early Wynn, who came down with bronchial pneumonia just before the season began, makes his first pitching start of the season tomorrow for the Cleveland Indians.

The big righthander won 23 and lost 11 last year and has been missed badly by the Tribe's faltering pitching staff.

Bob Lemon, the only Indian chucker with more victories than defeats, works today as the Tribe opens a two-game set against the Washington Nats. Lemon, who has a 3-0 record, will be opposed by southpaw Maurice McDermott who is 1-1. Against the Nats last year, Lemon had a 2-1 record, while McDermott was 1-3.

Aside from Lemon, the highly touted Cleveland pitching has been weak during the first 11 games. Mike Garcia, the other member of the Big Three, has one victory against two losses; rookie Herb Score is 1-1; Bobby Feller is 0-1 and Art Houtteman is 1-1.

Wynn has worked one game in relief since getting out of bed. He went to the mound Sunday in a game the Tribe already had lost to Detroit and pitched two scoreless innings, giving up one hit.

Water Projects Not Paying Way

Ray Tucker

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — An editorial from the Charleston, S. C., News and Courier discloses the fate of most of the Roosevelt-Truman New Deal's waterpower projects. They are not paying their way on a profit-and-loss basis, which is the measure of a private enterprise achievement. They are costing the taxpayers an awful lot of money, including citizens who derive no benefits from their subsidized rates.

The Santee - Cooper project, which harnesses waters of two rivers of the same names above Charleston, S. C., is typical of federal projects in this field. It was built by Harold L. Ickes' Public Works Administration, and then turned over to the state, to be operated by a state authority.

The federal Rural Electrification Administration loaned $13.6 million to a central cooperative to build lines that would haul the state authority's power to 80,000 farmers.

* * *

FINANCIAL JAM—As recently reported here, the state authority has become involved in such a financial jam that it announced an increase of the rate to farmer consumers from 6 to 7.2 mills per kilowatt hour. The farmers cannot pay the increase especially as they were promised cheap hydroelectricity by F.D.R., Harry S. Truman, Harold L. Ickes, and Oscar Chapman, the last Democratic occupant of the office of secretary of the interior.

In order to keep the price of power low enough for agricultural use, the South Carolina cooperative has had to ask for a three-year deferment on repayment of its $13.6 million to the REA.

In short, both the state authority, which still owes $29 million to Uncle Sam and about $15 million to Wall Street bankers, and the cooperative, are bankrupt.

This experiment in so-called "cheap power" will undoubtedly influence Congress in current discussions of such projects as the Tennessee Valley Authority, Hell's Canyon and federal versus private development of the waterpower resources at Niagara Falls.

* * *

"Despite denials, Santee-Cooper is in financial hot water. So, an increase in rates charged retail customers was to be expected. Equally as significant as the 10 per cent increase, however, is the dictatorial, off-hand manner in which Santee-Cooper ordered the boost into effect.

"As we have pointed out, taxpaying power companies in South Carolina are regulated by the Public Service Commission. The commission tells these free enterprise companies where they can operate and how much they may charge.

"When a free enterprise company wants to change its rates, it must go hat-in-hand to the commission, explain its position, appear at public hearings, and so forth. Then, after all the facts have been reviewed, the commission decides whether to allow the rate change.

* * *

UNTO ITSELF—"Not so with Santee-Cooper," continues the editorial, "which is a law unto itself in South Carolina. Santee-Cooper operates wherever and whenever it pleases. It borrows money in Washington and Wall Street, without specific authorization from anybody but itself. It fixes the pay of its own officials. And it fixes the rates that its customers must pay.

"Santee-Cooper has been given close to $30 million by the American taxpayers. Santee-Cooper has been lent additional millions by the taxpayers at extremely low interest rates. Santee-Cooper has been excused from paying all but token taxes. And Santee-cooper has been left to run its own show, without regulation or supervision."

The News and Courier recommends that Santee-Cooper be sold to private interests. Which, incidentally, is Eisenhower's idea and purpose, believing that the concept of "cheap" public power has been discredited in the public mind.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

We are continuing today the section of the Board of Education's policies dealing with miscellaneous regulations for teachers:

Section 6.1 Duties of Teachers: Duties of teachers will be made known through bulletins and otherwise by the superintendent of schools.

Section 6.2 Arrival time: All high school teachers are to report for duty in their respective rooms at 8:25 A. M. & 12:35 P. M. and the elementary teachers at 8:30 A. M. and 12:35 P. M. Teachers will be expected to arrive on time.

Section 6.3 Departure Time: For the purpose of providing a time for pupil-teacher conferences, inter-teacher conferences to discuss common scholastic problems, to work on records, or to attend committee meetings, all teachers are asked to delay leaving the building in the evening at least 20 minutes after dismissal of school, except on Friday evenings, dismissal of school for special occasions, or by specific permission from the Principal. Elementary teachers, therefore, will remain until 3:50 and high school teachers, with the exception of the coaches, until 4:00 P. M.

Section 6.4 Records and Reports: Teachers shall keep such records and make such reports as are required, or as the superintendent may deem necessary.

Section 6.4 Meetings: All teachers are required to attend teachers' meetings called by the Principals or by the Superintendent unless they are specifically excused from such attendance.

Section 6.6 Membership: It is expected that each teacher will become a member of the PTA of his building, and attend every meeting if it is physically possible for him to do so. Each teacher is also expected to belong to the OEA the NEA, city and county associations.

Section 6.8 Dicipline: Teachers Teachers must report to the Principal all cases of sudden illness or accidents of pupils. If it is necessary, the Principal notified should cal. the doctor named on the pupil's information sheet, so that proper treatment may be administered. Parents are to be notified of accidents as soon as possible.

Section 6.8 Disciplene: Teachers are responsible for the orderly deportment of their pupils and for maintaining proper discipline in the classroom and corridors at all times. Teachers are responsible for the disciplining of pupils whenever and wherever an infraction occurs during school time or at a school function. The teacher nearest the infraction should handle it without hesitation.

Section 6.9 Attendance at School Functions: Teachers are expected to attend the public school functions during year. It is very important for our overall program that each teacher take an active interest in and support his colleague's program. In general, teachers are provided with a complimentary ticket to school functions for which an admission is charged High School teachers are required to attend Class Nght, Baccalaureate, and Commencement exercises, unless excused by the Superintendent.

Section 6.10 Ethics: Teachers are expected to abide by the professional code of ethics established by the profession.

Section 6.11 Certification: It is the responsibility of the teacher to provide a copy of his teaching certificate to be kept on file in the Superintendent's office. The teacher is responsible for securing a renewal of his teaching certificate prior to the school year in which the certificate will expire.

Reds Down Plane

TOKYO (AP) — Peiping radio said today ground gunners shot down a Nationalist plane Sunday near the island of Namoa, 190 miles across the strait from Formosa.

A COUPLE OF CONTRASTING motion picture stories have been booked for the twin bill at the Fayette Theater here for Wednesday and Thursday. One of them, "Beau Brummel," stars Stewart Granger and Elizabeth Taylor and the other, "The Bob Mathias Story," is about a small town boy who made history.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Chives Useful in Kitchen

By DEAN HALLIDAY

Distributed by Central Press Association

SOME herbs can be grown in the vegetable garden as border plants thus giving the area a more decorative effect. Thyme, basil and chives, in addition to their kitchen uses, produce flower clusters which in themselves are attractive in garden borders.

Chives are related to the onion family but have a more delicate taste. They are a perennial herb.

As shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph, the foliage of chives grows to a height of six to eight inches. In the spring, the clumps produce small, round flower-heads which are lavender in color. They bloom for several weeks.

The leaves of chives can be cut freely from time to time and the plant will keep on growing. They are at their best before the bloom appears.

When finely chopped, the foliage can be added to salads, omelets, sauces and stews to give a delicate onion-like flavor. The chopped leaves are also excellent when used as a garnish for boiled potatoes.

Clumps of chives should be divided every two or three years or they will develop such a mass of bulbs that the plants starve. Dividing of chives is best done in the spring. The individual bulbs or sections should be replanted about 12 inches apart in the row.

Chives can be grown from seed if bulbs are not available. Any neighbor who has chives growing in the garden usually will be glad to share a few bulbs.

4-H Club Activities

MAGIC MAKERS

Linda Lucas called the last meeting of the Magic Makers to order at the home of Barbara Cahall. Juliana Wilson, the secretary, called the roll and the girls answered with bits of information they had picked up during their tour of Pennington's Bakery.

Marty Woodyard read the treasurer's report, which showed the girls had earned $30.93 at their bake sale last week. The girls then discussed ideas for the Fair booth and for talent night.

Sally Loudner gave a report on the 4-H conference at the high school. Marty Woodyard gave a demonstration on weaving huck towels and Betty Ellen Clarke led the game that closed the meeting.

JR. HOMEMAKERS

The Jeff Junior Homemakers spent most of their last meeting period working on their projects, towels, aprons and easy-to-make cotton dresses.

Led by the president Jane Smith, the meeting featured demonstrations by Betty Hunt on the proper way to brush teeth and by Karen Mossman on how to set a table.

Gathering at the Jeffersonville school, the girls heard the secretary's and treasurer's reports submitted by Carolyn Ritenour and Gayle Morrow. Sally Kilgore and Virginia Minney served refreshments.

Karen Mossman and one of the advisors, Mrs. Horace Mossman, will be hostesses at the next meeting, on May 5 at the school. Mrs. Howard Keith is the other advisor.

SEAMIN' DEMONS

The girls of the Seamin' Demons planned a 4-H tour at their last meeting, held at the home of Ann Waters. The girls will visit several places of business.

A discussion on home furnishings was held when it developed that several girls planned to redecorate their rooms.

SENIOR FASHIONETTES

Nancy Mossbarger is the new president and Carol was elected vice president. Judy Welsh is secretary; Mary Cook, treasurer; and Marilyn Rhoades, reporter and sergeant at arms.

The girls planned a pair of sales to be held in the near future. One will be a bake sale; the other will be a sale of dolls. Girls will start work on the dolls at their next meeting.

Isolated Islanders Brought Relief

ST. JOHN'S, NFLD. (AP)—The whaling boat Finback carried food and fuel through heaving ice yesterday to Bell Island, where 12,000 people have been bottled up for several weeks by an arctic ice jam. Little fresh meat is left in stores on the island, three miles offshore, and grocers are selling bread only to regular customers.

Poet's Corner

The golden sun is sinking in the west,
The flowers hang their heads
All covered with dew
And darkness covers the earth
Our daily work is done
And we ask the dear Lord
To keep us safe through the night
And grant us another day of delight

Little League Tryouts Set Up

Progress Reports Made To Board

The times for the player tryouts were set and progress reports were made when the Little League's Operating Board met Monday night in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium.

The board also put the final stamp of approval on the associated membership plan and cut the membership fee from $2 to $1 a year. The fee reduction, it was hoped, would bring more individuals into support of the Little League.

The board's decision on the associate membership question left the subscription to the Little League magazine up to the individual members.

The week of May 9 was designated as Little League Week — the week when a concerted effort will be put behind the member sign-up canvass.

Player tryouts are to be held on two Saturdays, May 7 and 14, the board agreed. Although details are to be worked out later, indications now are that they will be at two fields, the high school field on Circle Avenue and the one at the National Cash Register Co. out South Fayette Street.

Application blanks, also will have a parent consent form attached, are to be passed out to boys of the 8 to 12-year-old (inclusive) age group in the elementary schools of Washington C. H. and Union Township. The Union Township schools are Chaffin, Eber and Wilson.

These application and parent consent forms are to be brought to the tryouts by the boys and given to the managers, who will pass them along to B. M. (Mac) Marlin, the League vice president and player's agent, who will file them.

* * *

JOE PETERS, chairman of the grounds committee, reported progress in the development of Wilson Field. He said the playing field had been laid out and the turf seeded. Work of the dugouts, the grading etc., he said, would start within a week, depending on the weather.

The decision not to hold the tryouts at Wilson Field was based on the feeling that it would be better to wait until the grading was completed and the turf well rooted.

John Breiner, who heads the equipment committee, said contracts had been made with two sporting goods dealers here to supply the regulation uniforms, bats balls and all protective equipment, including a plastic cap liner.

The uniforms, balls, bats and catcher's equipment are furnished from the money contributed to the League by the sponsors. All the boys have to buy is their own shoes (rubber soles with rubber spikes if they want them) and their gloves.

Man Worried

Well, like I said, here I am and today I'm thinking Grandpop would be mighty glad to know us Southerners are running all the really important jobs in Congress again.

We've even got a Texan name of Eisenhower as president and I reckon in view of that we can't grudge him too much that he is a Republican.

All this isn't doing me much good, though, To go anywhere or do anything around here you have got to have a pass and you don't get a pass without a security check.

I'm worrying — and it's all Grandpop's fault—that somebody's liable to ask, "Have you or any member of your family ever belonged to an organization which advocated the violent overthrow of the U. S. government?"

Now what am I gonna tell 'em?

Judge Case Moves To Another Office

Judge John P. Case has moved his office in the court house from the southeast corner of the third floor of the court house to the office room west of the common pleas court room while work of installing the new elevator is underway.

Judge Case spent several hours moving his large library from the former office to the temporary quarters.

When the elevator is installed he will move back into the former office, but it will be necessary to use another door, one through a small private office, to reach the main office, as the regular door to his office will be eliminated by the elevator shaft.

Courts

DIVORCE GRANTED

Judge John P. Case has granted a divorce to Charlotte Ladd from Jesse LeRoy Ladd, on grounds of gross neglect of duty. The plaintiff was restored to her former named of Charlotte Pidgeon.

The plaintiff also was awarded defendant's half interest in an apartment house in Tampa, Fla., as alimony, and the defendant was ordered to convey the property to her within five days or the decree automatically acts as a transfer of the property.

More Blood Donors

is to come on down to the Bloodmobile center in the First Presbyterian Church and see," Mrs. Wise said.

She added that the rumor had somehow got started that donors with type "O" blood are not needed." That definitely isn't so," she said. "As a matter of fact, type 'O' is used so much that we need it even more than the others.

"But all types are desperately needed," she summed up.

Transportation to the donor center in the First Presbyterian Church will be furnished by members of the Business and Professional Women's Club. All a donor has to do is to tell the Lioness whom he calls, "I need transportation," and a ride to and from the church will be arranged.

Work On Elevator Is Moving Rapidly

Most of the work on the lower portion of the elevator shaft at the courthouse, including the pit, has been completed, and workmen have moved to the third floor where they have started the work of removing everything in the path of the shaft.

As the elevator shaft will occupy all of the space in front of the main door leading into the offices of the common pleas judge, the door will be blocked off and sealed.

Several feet of the corridor outside the door will be utilized for the shaft.

A large section of the brick wall between the corridor and the small roof in the common pleas judge's suite, must also be torn out to make room for the elevator.

CHILLICOTHE — Damage estimated as high as $50,000 was done to the Elks Lodge Headquarters during a fire Monday. Defective wiring was held responsible.

Annual Meeting Of Grace Church

Church Shows Good Growth In Year

Reports of all department heads were made, new officers elected, and other business given attention at the annual meeting of the quarterly conference of Grace Methodist Church Monday night.

A covered dish supper preceded the business meeting. It was attended by some two score members.

Dr. Edwin H. Dickey, superintendent of the Wilmington District, presided over the meeting and at the close praised the officers for their good work the past year.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengle presented a report on the progress made during the year and goals set up for the coming year.

* * *

THE REPORT stressed the need of additional room for the ever expanding Sunday School and noted the organization of the "Neighborhood Friends," a meeting of which is to be held Monday night.

The trustees' report submitted by Robert Terhune disclosed that the church property is valued at $311,000 and the parsonage $20,000. Insurance covers up to $216,000 on the church, $2,000 on the parsonage $11,600 on the church equipment $2,000 on the parsonage equipment.

A report submitted by Miss Frances White showed total enrollment in the Sunday School of 1,021, an increase of 186 in the enrollment during the past year, when the average attendance was 435 each Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Grim, president of the WSCS, reported total receipts during the year were $4,265.92.

Mrs. O. T. Winter, reporting on benevolences, announced total receipts of $5,373.37 during the year and expenditures of $5,305 in the year.

Ray Brandenburg reported for the finance commission, giving data in connection with church expenditures and the budget for the year.

Ellis Bishop, Troy T. Junk and Miss Ruth Sexton were elected members of the board of trustees, and the same "ex officio" members of the board were re-elected for the year, together with a long list of other officers, including several dozen stewards.

Robert Terhune moved that the members go on record in praise of the fine leadership of the pastor and his wife, and the motion carried.

Election Date Set by Jaycees

Fireworks Fund Help Is Needed

Members of the nominating committee are Dave Ogan, chairman, John Craig, Dick Willis, Dick Arnott and Dr. Larry Burris. Two candidates will be nominated for each office.

Members discussed the sanitary facilities which the Jaycees plan to build at the community park. Bill Williams reported no progress because of the unavailability of a site map. He hoped to have something soon to turn over to Chairman Ogan of that committee, he said.

The Jaycees are planning a weekend overnight camp for their Boy Scout troop Friday and Saturday at Camp Pine.

The independence Day Fireworks Committee reported bids had been received by two fireworks firms. However, doubt was expressed that the Jaycees will be able to put on the fireworks display at the park this year without outside aid. The high cost of the sanitation project was given as the principal reason for this.

Dick Arnott, chairman of the Independence Day Committee, said that any social organization wanting to contribute to the fireworks display should contact Dr. Larry Burris. Other members of this committee are Bob Denton and Dick Willis.

AUTOS IN CRASH

CLARKSBURG — Mrs. William F. Yaple, 49, Chillicothe, was injured severely when her car collided with a car driven by Wayne A. Cottrill, 20, who pulled from a private drive on the Egypt Road in front of the Yaple car. Susan Cottrill, 18, also sustained injuries.

Garage Planned For Company M

Summer Training To Be In Kentucky

Company M of the Ohio National Guard here will probably get a new garage and service center, it was learned Tuesday. Warrant Officer, Robert Goodson, the unit administrator, said that $22,091 was earmarked for that purpose.

Sgt. George A. Haynes, service center mechanic for this area, has been in contact with the state maintenance officer who said the money will be used for the new garage if it is appropriated.

The building will probably be located on a new site outside of town, Goodson said. The State may buy the site or it may be donated. Company M has been authorized 46 vehicles and the unit is now 65 per cent mobile.

* * *

THE OHIO National Guard's training at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., this summer will cost the federal government an extra $90,000. Barring any unexpected changes in plans, this is where Company M will spend its two-week training period.

This estimate, made public yesterday by a House Appropriations subcommittee, was given at a closed hearing by Maj. Gen. William H. Abendroth, chief of the Army division of the Guard.

The Ohio and Indiana guards had been training at Camp Grayling in Michigan. Then Michigan decided to charge each of them $50,000 for this privilege. Indiana accepted this term but Ohio refused.

So a new training base had to be opened for the Ohio guard at Breckenridge, with a resulting increased cost in federal contributions, Abendroth told the group.

The Guard also submitted to the House group a list of construction projects it wants Congress to finance. For Ohio, the guard request included:

Newark—warehouse, $40,000.
Washington C. H.—$22,091.
Lima—$35,194.
Newark—$35,194.
Middletown—$28,590.
Springfield—$28,590.
Canton—$28,590.
Clyde—$28,590.
Portsmouth—$22,091.
Steubenville—$22,091.
Newark—motor vehicle storage building, $440,000.
Camp Perry — ammunition igloos, $24,000.
Camp Perry—replacement housing, $1,108,606.
